Mrs. Emma Franklin Is Eighty-Seven On Tuesday

Mrs. Emma Franklin will celebrate her 87th birthday next Tuesday. She would appreciate cards written to her at Apartment 8, Allan Village, Endwell, N. Y.

During this past winter, Mrs. Franklin and her son William left their home at Red Rock because of the severe weather, and took an apartment closer to Mr. Franklin's work with IBM. They expect to return to Red Rock as soon as the weather moderates.

Mrs. Franklin, for many years a resident of Franklin Street Dallas, suffered an accident some years ago, which made wearing of a brace on her leg a necessity. Except for this handicap, she is in reasonable health.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shiber, Married Fifty Five Years On Tuesday

One of the best loved couples in Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shiber, Center Hill Road, will celebrate their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary quietly at their home on Tuesday.

Mrs. Shiber is the former Clara Gillman, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jake Gillman. The Gillmans owned and operated a butcher shop at the corner of Grove and Brown Streets, Wilkes Barre. Mr. Shiber is son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Shiber, North Washington Street, Wilkes Barre. The couple was married in the Centermoreland Methodist parsonage by the Rev. Mr. McDermott, April 18, 1906, and went to housekeeping in Wilkes Barre where Mr. Shiber worked as pressman for the Wilkes Barre Record. They had one son who died when he was three — if he had lived, he would be fifty three.

About thirty seven years ago, Mr. Shiber and his half brother, Clyde Veitch contractor, built two homes on Center Hill Road and the Shibers moved into the one they now occupy.

When he retired from the Record, flower growers all over the United States got acquainted with Ray whose hobby was pollinating gladioli. These he planted, cultivated and showed at the big flower shows all over the East, his moment of greatest triumph coming when he beat the Burpees in the Philadelphia Show. After his doctor told him he'd have to "take it easy" and cut down on physical exercise, Ray sold four hundred bushels of gladi bulbs to the Burpees and decided to settle for collecting and selling antiques — a hobby both he and Mrs. Shiber love!

Both the Shibers are active members of the Dallas Methodist Church. Mrs. Shiber helping with the W.S.C.S., Mr. Shiber serving at various times on the Board of Trustees and the Official Board. Mr. Shiber is probably the best authority in the Back Mountain Area on the Civil War and likes nothing better than to tell tales of his old Civil War soldier friends to a visiting neighbor or at the Civil War Round Table meetings.

When they celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary, the Shibers entertained over two hundred friends and neighbors who dropped in to wish them well — on their sixtieth, Ray says, they expect twice that many!

Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Cooke Celebrate Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Cooke, Fernbrook celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with their whole family gathered at a dinner over the Easter holiday; their children, Betty Jane Cooke, New York City, Charles, Michigan and daughter Claudia and son-in-law, Frank Kamer and grandchildren Debbie, Chris, Jennifer and Barbara of Philadelphia, also Mrs. Cooke's two sisters, Julia Knorr of Trucksville and Mrs. Della Thompson, Shavertown.

The Cookes are both from pioneer stock in the Back Mountain. Mrs. Cooke is the former Loretta Knorr, daughter of the late Margaret Martz and Thomas J. Knorr of Trucksville and Claude is son of the late Clara Frantz Shaver and Clarence H. Cooke of Dallas.

The couple was married in Trucksville Methodist Church by the late Rev. John L. Thomas. Mrs. Cooke's hobbies are her flowers and sewing for her four grandchildren, while Claude likes to help a neighbor here and there, lending a hand where needed and taking walks to keep him young. He is a retired Wilkes-Barre Transit Co. Bus inspector.
