Mt. Zion

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lloyd have purchased the home of Mrs. Howard Lewis at Mt. Zion. Mrs. Lloyd is the former Jane Lewis their daughter.

At the meeting of Troop 162 Boy Scouts at Carverton Monday night Bradley Earl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alden Earl, Mt. Zion, was made a Life Scout. Mr. Stern is Scoutmaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thomas Sr. (our neighbor next down the road) have moved in with G. C. LaBar over on Kitchen Road. Mr. LaBar is the father of Mrs. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thomas (we used to know him as "Roy-Bill" when we were here before) and three house. Formerly they lived in an upstairs apartment over his parents. Their oldest child Karen calls me "Uncle Gilbert".

Wesley Lewis recently returned from Chicago where he attended a meeting of the Coordinating Council of the Methodist Church. Mr. Lewis is Lay Leader of the Wyoming Conference and delegate to the General Conference.

On Wednesday night Mr. Lewis went to Hawley where he officiated at the chartering of a Methodist Men's Club in the Hawley Methodist Church.

On Wednesday night there were seventy-five members of families attending the Family Night Supper held by the Kings Crusaders Class. Mrs. Alex Smith is president. She highly commended the chairmen and committees for the splendid work they have been doing and the progress reported.

Phyllis Seiple, Mt. Zion Road daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Seiple, has been awarded a scholarship at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital School of Nursing. She will enter in September to begin her studies there.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Seiple held a pig roast recently (the pig had an apple in its mouth just like pictures you see) and pictures were taken of this little pig who didn't get to market. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Theron Lamoreau, Mr. and Mrs. Richard King and children Rocky and Janice all of Mt. Zion. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davis and daughter Nancy, Rex Williams, Susan Thornton, Ronny Searfoss, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rickert and son Wayne from the Pittston area.

From the Exeter Township Elementary School comes this news: The winners of the Pittston Junior Chamber of Commerce spelling bee contest were as follows, from the 5th grade Karen Hronich, 6th grade Janice Romanowski, 7th grade Beverly Dymond, 8th grade Barbara Babish. These were eligible for the contest April 18 at the West Pittston High School.

Fifth Meeting of the P.T.A. is to be held Wednesday May 3 at 8 P.M. The speakers are to be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rusbar on "Indian Lore".

On May 13, Saturday at 2 P.M. the P.T.A. will hold its Spring Carnival at the Harding Hose Co.

The Harry Scoble family moved on Monday April 10 from the Camp Ground Road, Mt. Zion, to the Trucksville Road Trucksville.

A lovely note came from Bernice Spencer of Rome Pa. in which she writes: "I enjoyed Mt. Zion News in the Dallas Post." Well, that's why people all over subscribe to the Dallas Post!

Spring has really come to Dumovion over on Mt. Zion road. Catherine and Papa set out twenty six hedge rose bushes the other day. Roses for posies, berries for fairies come winter.

Same day the pond pump got hauled out of winter storage and installed on the dock at pond's edge. We read that this will be a dry summer and now we are ready. (Last Fall we heard it was to be a mild winter! A hard winter would really be awful!)
