

Walter Meeker, 57, Has Fatal Heart Attack

Walter Meeker, 57, suffered a heart attack at his home in Hunlock Creek Friday morning, and died shortly after admission to Nesbitt Hospital. He was buried in Lehman cemetery Monday afternoon. Rev. Oscar Saxe and Rev. Oscar Kulp conducting services from the Bronson Funeral Home.

Mr. Meeker was a native of Lehman Township, son of the late William J. and Myra Shaver Meeker. The family homestead was the one on water company property that stood empty for so many years, before it was "burned, presumably by arsonists, and later razed to the ground, leaving only the beautiful hardy hydrangea bush to mark the spot. Meeker was named for the family.

Twenty-six years ago he moved from Meeker to Hunlock Creek, where he belonged to the Muhlenburg Church. He was employed by the General Machine Company in Berwick.

While living at Meeker, he worked for the John Hildebrand family on the farm now owned by Governor John Fine.

Surviving are his wife, the former Bertha Padolski; a daughter, Marilyn of New York City; sons William, at home, and Glenn of Baltimore, Md., a grandson, James; sisters, Mrs. Ruth King, Dallas; Mrs. Mildred Wright, Chase, and Mrs. Jennie Steltz, Pikes Creek.

Prayers Are Asked For Child Facing Surgery

Prayers are asked for a little two-year old girl who faces serious surgery in the near future. Theadora Fuller, of Pringle, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Major Brown, Dallas RD 3, and daughter of the former Lillian Brown of Fernbrook, was crippled at birth, requiring plastic tube surgery when only sixteen days old.

May 1, she will again be admitted to the Children's Hospital in Buffalo, for one of a series of operations which must be performed if she is to live.

A farewell party was given yesterday for the little girl by her godmother Dorothy Brown at the home of her grandfather Major Brown.

Express Gratitude

Bradner Roushey, Main Street, Dallas, and family wish to express their appreciation for the many kindnesses extended to them by friends and neighbors at the time of the death of their wife and mother.
