Circle Inn Ladies have been giving the men a lot of competition in Lakers League. The girls took the first half championship and are still going "great guns". The team is made up of some fine women keepers; most of them beginners with only two or three years in the sport. Recently, the Ladies met Kocher's B's and spilled pins all over the lanes. Anita Pascavage rolled a beautiful 586 (190-193-203); Rita Costello posted 544 (152-214-178); Rose Novrosky hit 443. They took all 4 points.

It's a fine thing Tony Bonomo is doing for Becky Casterline. He has set aside the evening of May 8 as a special benefit night for the Casterline Building Fund. Becky and her family were forced to leave their home when it was destroyed by fire in January. She is well-known at Crown Imperial, an enthusiastic bowler in more than one league, and her many friends and neighbors got together to help her rebuild, Tony doing his bit by sponsoring this special event.
