Weimaraner Takes Off Along With Chair

Marijane Moss' Weimaraner, bought at the Library Auction last July, was getting used to a new home at the Paul Wasseroth's in Idetown, when complications developed. Paul stepped inside to heat up the dog chow, leaving his new pet tied temporarily to a chair leg. Bursting with health, a small cowboy came roaring around the corner of the house, bang-bang-bang, and the Weimaraner took off into the blue, chair and all.

She was absent all day Friday, but came loping home Saturday afternoon, just in time to avoid the violent thunderstorm, and to collect on the dog chow. Minus the chair, which shucked off somewhere en route, Marijane expected her to come nosing into the yard at Trucksville, but she apparently never left Idetown.

Last summer when she went AWOL, she reached Luzerne in less than no time, still emotionally disturbed because of her star performance on the auction block.

Paul Hartzdorf, 87, Has Fatal Heart Attack

Paul E. Hartzdorf, 87, suffered a fatal heart attack Tuesday morning at his home in Center Moreland, passing away some hours before the return of his son Otto late in the afternoon.

Services will be conducted Friday afternoon from the Williams Funeral Home, Rev. Frederic Eldman, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, officiating. Friends may call today, 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m.

Mr. Hartzdorf was with Hess Goldsmith as a weaving room foreman from 1905 to 1936, when he moved to a farm in Center Moreland after 30 years of residence in Kingston. Prior to being employed with Hess Goldsmith, he lived in Bethlehem for thirteen years.

He came to this country from his native Germany, as a young man of nineteen. His parents were the late Herman and Hedwina Hartzdorf. His wife, the former Clara Fischer, died five and a half years ago.

Mr. Hartzdorf's son Otto handled the Star Route for Dallas Post Office. After ten years of service to the community, he was unable to continue because of being beyond the age for taking civil service examinations. Otto was greatly missed by everybody on the Star Route running between Dallas and Center Moreland.

Mr. Hartzdorf is survived by two sons: Otto of Center Moreland, and Walter, Dearborn, Michigan; two daughters: Mrs. Helen Totten, New Jersey, and Mrs. Alice Phillips, Kingston; eleven grandchildren, twenty great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. He lost a grand-nephew, Otto Hartzdorf in the Second World War, killed in Italy.

Carl Stainbrook Retires July 1

Has Been Supervisor For Game Commission

Carl Stainbrook, for the past thirteen years Supervisor for the thirteen Northeastern Counties of Pennsylvania for the game Commission, will retire, effective July 1. Retirement will terminate a twenty-eight year association with Game Commission.

A testimonial dinner will be given in his honor May 20 at Hotel Redington, sponsored by Sportsmen of Northeastern Pennsylvania.

A resident of Washington County, he served that area as Game Protector, and for two years was in the Ligonier office in the Pittsburgh area, before settling in Sweet Valley.

Before entering Game Commission employ, he worked in the oil country in various places in the western end of Pennsylvania and New York State.

Mr. Stainbrook served with the Army in France during World War I, and is a member of American Legion and Society of the 28th Division. He belongs to numerous civic and sportsmen's organizations.

He was a native of Crawford County, born near Meadville.

Mr. Stainbrook retires just as the new Game Commission Building is beginning to serve as focus for a wide area. It was formally dedicated two weeks ago at impressive ceremonies, at which Mr. Stainbrook was introduced before the dedicatory plaque was unveiled.

Mr. and Mrs. Stainbrook expect to catch up on their traveling after July 1. The Game Commission makes retirements mandatory at 65.

Tickets for the testimonial dinner are available at the Game Commission office in Dallas.
