Lucky... What A Name For A Little Dog That Took The Poisoned Bait!

Frank Cooper, Woodcliffe Drive, called the Dallas Post on Friday, after reading the article about the recent deceptions of the New Goss Manor dog poisoner.

"It wasn't last year," he explained, "it was just last week that it happened. It was Robert Block's little three-legged dog that got poisoned last year."

"Our little terrier, Lucky, was poisoned just a couple of days before

John McCormick's dog, and Monroe Houtz's poodle. Lucky went out for a little run Saturday morning. That must have been April 15. An hour later, he was dead. There wasn't even time to get him to the doctor, though Dr. Post said bring him right down.

"Lucky maybe wasn't much of a dog. Didn't have AKC registry or anything. But he was one of the family, and the neighborhood kids

Fire Training Mondays

Training sessions for active firemen of the Dr. Henry M. Laing Fire Company will be held each Monday evening at the Dallas Borough Building.

Muncie Family Will Go To Afghanistan

William Muncie, Holly Street, left Saturday for a three week orientation course in Washington with the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Mines, before flying to Afghanistan to put his practical knowledge of mining, gained in Hudson and Glen Alden Companies, to work.

Mrs. Muncie and daughter Dottie, a senior at Westmoreland High School will join him in Kabul, Afghanistan, late in June.

Mr. and Mrs. William Muncie Jr.
