Burt Brink, 59, Suffers Fatal Heart Seizure

Burt Brink Sweet Valley, would have been 59 if he had lived until Tuesday. He died Saturday, suffering a fatal heart attack at his home in Sweet Valley. Services were conducted yesterday afternoon by Rev. William Hughes from the Bronson Funeral Home, with burial in Bloomingdale Cemetery.

Mr. Brink, who retired from active carpenter work three years ago at the time when he was working on construction of the Correctional Institution at Chase, had expected to go to town to help his wife pick out a birthday present. When she found she could go with a friend, Mr. Brink happily settled down to prepare for fishing, digging a can of worms and laying out his pole and line. At 4 p. m. when Mrs. Brink returned, she found that he had passed away.

The Brinks are an old family of the area, identified with its early history in Ross Township. Mr.

Brink was son of Sarah Wendell Brink and the late Joseph Brink. He was an excellent carpenter, working in many places, many times out of state.

He is survived by his wife, the former Elma Cragle; four children: Mrs. Ruth Blaine, Harveys Lake; Thomas, Hunlock Creek R.D.; James, Greenwood Lake, N. Y.; Priscilla, at home; two brothers: Claude, Mountaintop; and John, Hunlock Creek; a sister Jennie, Hunlock; eight grandchildren.
