Area 6 PSEA Stages Session

Area 6 PSEA In-Service Training session and dinner attracted 125 teachers to Dallas Junior High School on Monday. Miss Esther Saxe was Emcee.

Dr. Robert A. Mellman made opening remarks, and invited teachers to return in September for a tour through the new high school. Al Ford, assistant Luzerne County superintendent, spoke of Area 6 as leader in education.

Dr. Walter H. Sauvain, Bucknell University, main speaker, evaluated audio-visual and in-service programs, field trips, summer camps, summer schools, and exchange of teachers to foreign lands.

Two classes from Bucknell graduate extension were present on invitation of Walter Prokopchak.

Forty-Fort, Wyoming, Wilkes-Barre, Tunkhannock, Newport, Nanticoke, Kingston, Lehman and Dallas were represented.

The work-shop demonstrated audio-visual aids; slide, overhead and micro-projector; various types of cameras, and new sound devices.

On the planning committee were Miss Saxe, John Rosser, William A. Austin, and Alfred Camp; tickets, Fred Case, William Morgan; instructors, Mr. Prokopchak, Arthur Honts, Mr. Camp, Mr. Rosser, Joseph Rakshys, Mr. Austin, and Thomas Carr.

Officers of Area 6 are: Miss Saxe, president; Arthur Nuss, Lake-Lehman, vice president; Martha Smith, Lake-Lehman, secretary; Sarah Dymond, treasurer.

Miss Hill Entertains Prospective Nurses

Miss Jennie Hill, School Nurse of the Dallas School District, entertained at a program and tea Tuesday afternoon at Westmoreland High School in observance of Pennsylvania Nurse Week for students who are interested in following a nursing career.

Mrs. Ruth Seeherman of the educational department of Wilkes-Barre General Hospital was guest speaker. Accompanying her were two senior students, Sandra Baird and Barbara Cooney.

Mrs. Seeherman spoke on qualifications and requirements for nurses' training, and advised the students on high school subjects that would prove most helpful.

Miss Baird and Miss Cooney told of their experiences in training, outlining the fine opportunities available to registered nurses.
