Jo Ann Weed Becomes Bride Of C. W. Kytte

Jo Ann Weed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weed, 450 West Third Street, West Wyoming, became the bride of Clinton W. Kytte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kytte, Hunlock Creek, R.D. 1 at a candlelight service, April 8, in Wyoming Methodist Church.

The double-ring ceremony was performed at 7:30 p.m. by Rev. Guy Leinthal. Organist was Mrs. Donald Klapproth.

Mrs. Renford Wilce of Hunlock Creek, R.D. 1 was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mary Mullarkey and June Weed.

Renford Wilce was best man. Ushers were Charles W. Weed and Jerome Shilanski.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in floor-length gown of nylon and chantilly lace highlighted with rhinestones and seed pearls. The fitted bodice of lace designed with long sleeves tapered at the wrist featured a high neckline with Queen Anne collar. The five-tiered skirt ended in a chapel train. Her veil of silk illusion was styled to a queen's crown of seed pearls and she carried a white orchid surrounded by lilies of the valley.

Matron of honor chose lilac silk organza over satin gown with fitted bodice, low neckline and small cap sleeve. Her bouffant skirt was street length and a cascade of satin roses high-lighted the slight bustle back.

Bridesmaids wore matching dresses in turquoise. Their headresses were rhinestone tiaras with a profile veil.

All carried Colonial bouquets of carnations dyed to match their gowns.

Mother of the bride wore blue print dress with beige accessories and a corsage of blue orchids. Bridegroom's mother, blue dress, beige accessories; corsage of blue orchids.

Following a reception in the social room, the couple left for New York City.

They are residing at 77-22 271 Street, New Hyde Park, Queens, N.Y.

The bride is a graduate of West Wyoming High School.

She was employed by Wyoming Paper Company, Wyoming.

Bridegroom, a graduate of Lake Noxen High School, Harveys Lake, is employed by Sperry Gyroscope, New York.

The bride was honored at prenuptial showers given by Mrs. Renford Wilce and Misses June Weed and Irene Urnney.

Howard DeRemer called his sister, Mrs. Thomas Bottoms Thursday to inform the family that his oldest son, Franklin, has been accepted at M.I.T. Franklin was graduated with many awards from South Oak Cliff High School, Dallas, Texas, April 31.

Nancy Jane Jones Marries Richard H. Morgan On May 6

Nancy Jane Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones, East Center Street, Shavertown, became the bride of Richard Howard Morgan, Jr., in a double ring ceremony Saturday afternoon, May 6, in Shavertown Methodist Church.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert DeWitt Yost before an altar banked with bouquets of white gladioli and palms.

Gordon Evans was soloist and Mrs. Mary Jane Zerby played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore embroidered nylon net gown with tapered bodice, daintily scalloped neckline and long sleeves ending in points at the wrists. The bouffant skirt featured a full waterfall back with chapel train.

Her fingertip veil of hand-rolled French illusion fell from a Juliet cap of lace. She carried a bouquet of roses, carnations and English ivy.

Maid of honor was Jayne Searfoss of Kingston, cousin of the bride who wore a full skirted mint green dress of silk nylon, styled with a fitted embroidered bodice, portrait neckline and elbow length sleeves. She wore a dainty matching headpiece with profile veil, and carried a swing bouquet of pink carnations, roses and English ivy.

Bridesmaids were Linda Ruth Searfoss, cousin of the bride, and Janet Morgan, sister of the bridegroom. They wore dresses and headpieces identical to that of the maid of honor and carried swing bouquets of pink carnations, roses and English ivy.

Robert L. Morgan of Luzerne, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Daniel A. Lewis, Kingston, cousin of the bride, and James T. Morgan, Shavertown, bridegroom's cousin.

Mother of the bride chose a beige sheath dress, lace over toast taffeta, with matching accessories and corsage of baby orchids. Bridegroom's mother chose dusty rose eyelet silk sheath dress, matching accessories and corsage of baby cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. John Courtright, grandmother of the bride, wore a blue silk figured dress with matching accessories and white carnation corsage.

The reception was held in the church parlors, after which the couple left for Florida.

The bride chose for going away a champagne sheath dress with matching jacket and cocoa accessories. Her corsage was of brown orchids.

Mrs. Morgan is a graduate of Westmoreland High School and Wilkes College. She is employed by the American Insurance Company, Wilkes-Barre.

The bridegroom was graduated from Luzerne High School. He is serving in the United States Coast Guard.
