

Bowling News

By DORIS MALLIN

Now is the time of year when bowlers should sit back and relax! Season's over, end of mad dash for Crown Imperia! on league nights before evening meals are digested. But, don't sit back yet, this is when we celebrate! Banquets galore! Some have three or four to attend! Meetings, plans for next season! And TOURNAMENTS! Did you ever hear of so many? Take your pick! Summer leagues are beginning, too! Oh, joy! Who said, "Season's over?" This one's in full swing!

Last I heard, Bill Allabaugh was holding third position in tournament at Jimmy's Central Lanes. Final games were rolled Sunday night.

Women's City Tournament is now in motion at Publick's and Sacred Heart Lanes. Many local girls have entered.

Several Back Mountain girls will roll in Tournament at Williamsport's Faxon Lanes Friday and Saturday and local men have taken over the whole place on Sunday. Take a drive down and watch!

Circle Inn Teams Champs
Pete Ambrose is proud of his two teams of girls. Sunday afternoon wound up a week of tension and stiff competition for both teams.

Thursday night was final roll off of Laker's League with Circle Inn Ladies competing against second half winner, Koecher's Boys. Ladies took over by a margin of about 200 pins. These girls are real champs and put on a good show.

Rose Novroski led with high game of 199 and Becky Casterline had 196. Others on team were Gloria Grant, Rita Costello, Anita Pascavage and Sophia Ziminski.

Climax of Country League's season came with Sunday's playoff for championship between Circle Inn and first half winner, Plains Blouse. Pressure had been on Circle Inn all week beginning when it tied with Dallas Dairy for first place last Tuesday. The two teams had to roll off the tie Thursday. First two games were close. Circle led by 25 after first game and dropped 1 after Dallas took second by 1 pin. The Inn opened up in third and took over by 185 pins, claiming second half championship.

Plains Blouse, first half champs, were favorites when the teams met Sunday, but Circle girls put up a battle. It was a good match, anyone's game right to the bitter end of the tenth frame in last game. They tied first game with 734 each; Circle took second in last frame by 33, (828-795) and pressure was on in last game. Both teams were neck and neck all the way, going into tenth frame tied in marks.

Plains girls ran into some bad splits and Circle took the game, 823 to 817, and the championship. The margin was slim, 39 pins for three games. Congratulations, Circle Inn!

Rose Novroski led scoring with 157-169-176 (502) for Plains with Marie Ciccarelli hitting 169-179 (490). Marg Milne, 153-158-171

(482) and Carol Hadsel 178-161 (477) led Circle. Others on championship team are Captain Annabel Selingo, Elaine Saddington and Doris Mallin.

Thursday's playoff honors went to Elaine with 184-150-158 (492); Carol 160-181 (487); Marg 169-152-157 (478); Annabel 188 (469), and Doris 158. Liz Weale led Dallas Dairy with 188 (477).

Jean Agnew Tops Scoring
Jean Agnew led scoring in last night of regular competition in Country League with (527) 179-155-193. Rose Novroski hit 155-208 (498).

Alice Miller turned in 488 (165-176); Marie Bellas 474 (168-166); Carol Hadsel 466 (151-152-163); Marilyn Morris 159-158-150 (467); Anita Pascavage 180-158 (462); Lorre Sheckler 180 (457); Evelyn Kamont 169-151 (455); Grace Sickler 163-152 (452). Liz Weale had 154-160 and Flo Allabaugh hit 166. Single games in 150's were rolled by S. Gearhart, M. Ciccarelli, E. Saddington, M. Milne, M. Kingsbury, M. Shook, R. Costello, W. Boysen. West Side Building was high team
