

Girl Scouts To Work For Library Auction

Twenty-two Girl Scout troops of the Back Mountain District will cooperate in making ready for the fifteenth annual Library Auction Above are Senior Scout girls and officials of the District.

In the rear are Susan Cheney and Jean Merolla; Mrs. C. Wesley Boyle, District Director; Mrs. Darrell Crispell, District chairman; Mrs. Vincent Makar, Dallas Neighborhood Chairman; Mrs. Paul Priebe, co-leader; Mrs. Joseph Niezgoda, leader; Mrs. Robert Smales, Tunkhannock Neighborhood Chairman; Mrs. Ernest Norrie, Trucksville-Shaverstown neighborhood troop organizer; Mrs. Charles Roberts, Dallas Neighborhood Troop Consultant and Troop Chairman; Penny Farrar, and Marsha Getty. Absent when the picture was taken were Marian Ole-nick and Jeanette Gosart.

Troop 9 is only one of the area troops which will assist in recon-ditioning jewelry, stringing beads, polishing silver for the July 7 and 8 Auction at the Baryyard.

A big assignment for Girl Scouts is making of 1,000 lollipops for sale at the candy booth, and many Girl Scouts will assist at the Doll Booth. Troop 9 held a cocktail reception Tuesday evening at Dallas Methodist Church social rooms, where present Girl Scouts of the area and potential members were guests.

Troop 9 is a Trail-Blazer Moun-taineer group specializing in out-door skills and interested in com-munity service. One meeting a month is devoted to making of can-cer dressings, and girls are studying emergency procedure for possible disaster.

As part of the Ranger-Aid Bar, members have offered to lay permanent trails in unexplored sec-tions of Wildwood.

Civil War Engravings On Exhibit At Museum

Twelve Forbes engravings of Civil War scenes owned by the Pennsylv-ania Historical and Museum Com-mission have been put on exhibition in the central gallery in the State Museum Building.

From 1861 until 1865, Edwin Forbes was a staff artist for Frank Leslie's "Illustrated Newspaper," and was assigned to accompany the Army of the Potomac. He later used his sketches of campfire and battlefields as source material for several series of historical engravings.

Among subject titles in the cur-rent exhibit are "Through the Wilderness," "Trading for Coffee and Tobacco, Between Fortified Lines During a Truce," "Going Into Action," "The Pontoon Bridge," "The Distant Battle," and "The Ad-vance of Calvary."

There are a number of other Civil War art works on exhibit at the museum, a group headed by Roth-ermel's huge 32 by 16 1/2 foot paint-ing of Pickett's Charge at The Battle of Gettysburg, done on commission of the Pennsylvania legislature, and a reproduction of G. W. Storm's fam-ous "Lincoln and His Generals" painting. The Commission also owns a number of portraits of important leaders on the Civil War scene.

Westmoreland Diamond Team Beat Newport & Wilkes-Barre Twp.

Baseball action on the local high school level during the past week saw The Westmoreland nine vic-torious in games with Newport High School at home and Wilkes-Barre Township away. After a slow early season start, the local ball tossers have recorded a four win and four lost record by defeating Newport, 8-7 and then downing Wilkes-Barre Township, 7-4.

In the Newport encounter the Westmoreland Nine avenged an earlier 2-1 loss at Newport by sur-viving a three run rally in the last inning of the return game at the Dallas Township field. Tom Gaunt-lett with a home run over the right field fence in the first inning to score three runs along with two other hits led the Westmoreland attack. Paltrineri, the winning pitcher, with a double and a single, and Wes Evans with two hits figured in the winning score. Whit-taker, Fry, and Harris contributed single hits at opportune times.

Travelling to Wilkes-Barre Town-ship for a return game after an earlier 8-6 victory, the Westmore-land team won its second game over the home nine by a score of 7-4. Dave LaBar sparked a four run game winning rally in the seventh inning with a tremendous 375 foot home run to right field. Walks to Wes Evans and Tom Gauntlett followed by successive singles by Earl Harris, John Carey, and Harold Hislop produced three more runs to sew up the game. Wes Evans with a perfect day of three hits, LaBar with a homer and a single, and Earl Harris with two singles led the batting attack. Tom Gauntlett, in addition to a triple that scored two runs in the third, pitched a no-hitter until the fifth inning and struck out the first eight of nine batters to face him. He totalled fifteen strikeouts for the game.

Games remaining to be played

Kiwanis Peace Markers Along The Border

Shown here are the thirty-two Peace Markers which Kiwanis Clubs on both sides of the common U.S.-Canadian border have established at principal ports of entry. These Markers are dramatic proof of the peaceful nature of the longest un-fortified boundary in the world. This map is presented at the time of the thirty-sixth observance of Canada-U.S. Good Will Week.

There are now thirty-two Kiwanis-sponsored peace markers along the three thousand mile Canada-United States border, each one dedicated to dramatizing the peaceful neighbor-hood of the two countries, according to Robert S. Maturi, President of Dallas Kiwanis Club.

The announcement was made re-cently at the time of the 1961 obser-vance of Canada-U.S. Goodwill Week, Canada-U.S. Goodwill Week, al-though originated by Kiwanis, now enjoys wide participation in both countries.

The peace markers, erected by Kiwanis clubs on opposite sides of the common border, working in con-cert, are located at all principal ports of entry.

Each peace maker bears the leg-ends: "This unfortified Boundary Line between the Dominion of Can-ada and the United States of Amer-ica should quicken the remembrance of the more than a century old friendship between these countries—a lesson of peace to all nations." Some of the markers are of bronze, some of granite.

The Rush-Bagot Agreement in 1817 is an agreement that is the sole legal basis for our three thou-sand miles of unfortified boundary. It virtually demilitarizes the bound-ary between the United States and
