

Laurel Fete At Wellsboro June 16-18

Wellsboro, capital of Pennsylvania's canyon country, will play blossom-bedecked host to its 20th annual Pennsylvania State Laurel Festival June 16, 17, and 18 and Westmoreland Key Club and Keyettes will parade there on June 17.

The festival had its beginnings before World War II and has developed into one of the State's most colorful events. "Recreation in Pennsylvania's Canyon Country" will be the theme of the 1961 festival.

Saturday's big parade of floats, marching, musical and precision units, antique cars and dozens of laurel queen contestants will be followed by the Queen's Banquet at 8 p.m. and the biggest event, the crowning of the 1961 queen.

Exhibitions of fighting, maneuvers and marksmanship with Civil War equipment and tactics will be a highlight of the 3-day celebration. A children's pet and hobby parade will be held Friday.

Live and mounted animals, all-ways popular with everyone, and tanks and fish, loaned by the Pennsylvania Fish Commission, will be on display at the Wellsboro Armory. Industrial exhibits and hand craftsmanship will also be featured here.

Perhaps the most impressive ceremony of all will take place the last day of the festival when the combined voices of all the church choirs in Wellsboro will join in song and services at the union church worship on the green at 11 a.m.

Wellsboro, in northcentral Pennsylvania, is 200 miles northwest

Dallas Residents Are Graduates Of Misericordia

Three residents of the Dallas area received degrees at College Misericordia's Commencement Convocation on Sunday at Irem Temple. They are shown here in front of St. Mary's Church, Wilkes-Barre, where the Baccalaureate Mass was celebrated on Sunday morning at 11 a. m. From left to right are Claire Schall, Harveys Lake; Antoinette Wisniewski, Dallas; and Maureen Kelly, Dallas.

Examinations for Service Academies on July 10. Examinations for entrance to Air Force Academy, U.S. Military Academy, U.S. Naval Academy, and Merchant Marine Academy are scheduled for July 10 in Wilkes-Barre, among fifty cities of Pennsylvania.

Applications must be sent to Senator Joseph S. Clark, Senate Office Building, room 260, Washington D.C. by June 10. Available for appointment for 1962 are: one principal and ten alternates for the Air Force; one principal and three alternates to West Point; one principal and five alternates to Annapolis; and ten nominations to Merchant Marine.

Applicants must be not less than 17, not more than 22 prior to July 1 of entrance to any of the listed academies.

At Leonard Wood. FORT LEONARD WOOD, MO. (AHTNC)—Army Pvt. Theodore R. Kittle, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Kittle, Route 1, Sweet Valley, completed the light-vehicle driver course at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., May 18.

Kittle was taught to drive and perform maintenance on light military vehicles. He entered the Army last December and received basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

Auction Antiques Group To Stage Tea June 14. Members of the Back Mountain Memorial Antiques Committee will meet with Mrs. Russell Frantz, Hickory Hill Farm, Wednesday, June 14, at 2 p.m. for what will be the only formal meeting of the group. Tea will be served, and there will be a display of antiques for the block. It is hoped that each member will bring one antique.

Members are asked to keep their donations in their own home until June 22 and 23, when the stall for Antiques at the Barn will be open from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Each member of the committee is responsible for donation of three nice antiques, with one of them preferably furniture. The accent this year will be on quality, not quantity. A number of very good things have already been promised.

District 6 Bake Sale. Republican Women of District 6 will stage a Bake Sale Wednesday, June 2, at the Laundromat in Luzerne. Chairman of the 6th District is Mrs. John Welker.
