Looking at T-V

Who, GEORGE A. and EDITH ANN BURKE

PRESIDENT KENNEDY will be TV's most frequently-seen personality during the seven-day period starting May 31, and ending on the following Thursday June 6. That's when the networks will be covering his overseas meetings with French President de Gaulle and Soviet Premier Khrushchev. CBS-TV alone has lined up eight special telecasts on the subject.

NBC-TV has scheduled three special half-hour telecasts. The first will cover the President's visit with President de Gaulle at 8 p.m. Friday, June 2. The meeting with Premier Khrushchev will be shown at 9:30 p.m. Saturday, June 4. A general wrap-up will be recounted on the regular Chet Huntley show 5:30 p.m. Sunday, June 4, and the meeting with Prime Minister Macmillan will be shown in a special on Monday, June 5 at 10:30 p.m.

SID CAESAR would like to get back in television on a more regular basis. He has been conferring in New York with Patricia Barry, who co-starred with him earlier this season in a G.E. play. He would like a weekly situation comedy in which she would play the wife.

MILTON BERLE is another who is casting for a new show. His first preference is for ad-lib panel show. BILL BENDIX, with The Life of Riley and Overland Trail in the past, is filming a Mr. Ed. episode which he intends to use as a pilot for a third series starring himself.

PILOT SHOWS will be used on "Westinghouse Preview Theatre" to be seen Fridays from 9:30 to 10 p.m. on NBC starting July 14. A pilot film is a one episode story in a series that a producer hopes will be bought by some sponsor after he is shown the one pilot film. Making a pilot film often costs $50,000 or more to produce.

Normally, scare techniques intended to frighten drivers into avoiding accidents by safe driving aren't too effective. Most drivers have a firm belief that it is "the other guy" who will be hurt or killed in traffic accidents.

However, before a recent holiday weekend, a radio station in California came up with a novel idea that may have convinced at least 225 drivers that traffic accidents could happen to them.

Radio Station KPAY in Chico, Calif., startled its listeners by offering a free $750 funeral for anyone killed in holiday traffic. The only qualification necessary was that the victim had registered with the station in advance.

CANDID CAMERA - Alan Funt plans to shoot future sequences in Europe, Australia, Greenland and Alaska this summer, enough for seven full programs. One thing good about these locations he won't be recognized.

BING CROSBY intends to tape an all Irish special in Ireland for showing next season, but he has warned ABC-TV not to schedule it opposite any competing network special. Bing doesn't want any recurrence of the situation in which he found himself scheduled a half-hour after the start of Ingrid Bergman's CBS-TV drama.

NO WONDER! It has been said that David Susskind's latest production of "The Power and the Glory" which is now in rehearsal and will be taped for eventual CBS-TV showing is costing someone in the cast it is no wonder. Sir Laurence Olivier is starring in this 90-minute adaptation of Graham Green's moving story. Others in the cast are Julie Harris, George C. Scott, Keenan Wynn, Roddy McDowall, Patty Duke, Fritz Weaver, Cyril Cusack, Frank Conroy and Tim O'Connor.

ONLY YESTERDAY

Ten and Twenty Years Ago In The Dallas Post

IT HAPPENED 30 YEARS AGO:

Thomas Carle supervising principal of Kingston Townships schools, had his contract renewed for $2,700. All but two of the teachers were retained, at salaries ranging from $900 to $1,950.

Conditions were becoming overcrowded in Trucksville Schools, but a building program was deemed impossible to finance at the time.

Ralph Eipper was improving after having been in for several weeks, and friends expected to see him shortly, resuming work at Oliver's Garage.

Mr. and Mrs. James Perrigo of Trucksville were preparing to observe their Golden Wedding.

Eli Parrish, one of the few surviving veterans of the Civil War in this area, reminisced that Shell-Anna had been born in a log cabin in the midst of heavy skirmishing during the battle that raged outside Atlanta.

American Stores opened a new grocery at the Inlet, Harvey's Lake. State and County road workers were selected from married men applicants, to relieve shortage of work among heads of families.

The area hoped to see billboards eliminated from the entrance to the beautiful Back Mountain, following recommendations of a committee formed in Wilkes-Barre for beautifying approaches to the city.

Signs of the times of the Great Depression: six sheriff-sales advertised in the Dallas Post.

IT HAPPENED 20 YEARS AGO:

The Dallas Postoffice was raised to a second class status.

Arch Austin, completing his tenth year at Beaumont, headed a faculty of nine teachers. Ten seniors were getting ready to graduate.

At Lehman, honor students were announced: Nancy Parks, Victoria Niezgod, Esther Decker, and Jessie Bonning.

Javie Aiche, in an editorial, states that though Germany had the best equipped fighting force in the world, Japan had nothing to worry this country.

Dallas Borough expected to graduate 23 seniors; Dallas Township 34; Kingston Township 58; Lehman, 21. Kingston Township May Queen was Marion Jones.

Thorwald E. Lewis was at the helm in Dallas Township; James A. Martin in Kingston Township; T. A. Williams, Dallas Borough; Austin Snyder, Lehman.

Tom Kinney was helping make Martin Bombers in Baltimore.

AND 10 YEARS AGO:

In the last graduating class to receive diplomas from Dallas Borough high school before Dallas Borough joined forces with Kingston Township, top students were Joan Bruns and David Kunkle. At Dallas Township, valedictorian and salutatorian were announced as Louise Brziski and William Goddard.

Janice Rose was May Queen at Kingston Township. Fifth annual Memorial Day Parade at Sweet Valley drew thousands of spectators.

With arrival of structural steel, Gate of Heaven parochial school building took a spurt ahead.

Mary Alice Lewis was selected May Queen at Lehman. Farmers Night market opened in its greatly expanded location in Kingston.

Harold Souder and Herbert Brobst joined the air force. Mrs. David Edwards, 79, died at her home in Noxen.

Gloria Sickler became the bride of Pvt. George Parrish. Treva Traver was selected as Lake Township valedictorian. Treva had already been Queen of the May.

Harry Allen, who had a leg amputated at General Hospital, was home again at Harveys Lake, much improved.

Reunion Planned At Lavelle Home

A meeting was held Thursday evening at the home of Mildred Price Lavelle, Joseph Street, to outline plans for a reunion of Class 1946, Kingston Township High School. The affair will be held at Castle Inn on Saturday, September 2. Mary Lou Boyes Swingle is chairman.

Present at the meeting were Mary Lou, Hazel Roushey Garris, Marie Calkins, Lamoroux, Alice Lloyd Lameroux, Lois Sickler Perry, and Mildred Lavelle.

Bittenbenders Have Son

Mr. and Mrs. George Bittenbender, Machel Avenue, have announced the birth of a six pound, fourteen ounce baby boy, Brett, at General Hospital on May 25. There are three other children, Drew, Jan and Chris.

Mrs. Bittenbender is the former Lucille Disque of Dallas. Mr. Bittenbender is son of Mrs. George Bittenbender and the late George Bittenbender.

Mother and baby returned to their home on Monday. Gail Funke took care of the older children while their mother was in the hospital.

Basic In Texas

RICHARD F. LANG

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben F. Gabel have received word from Major General Robert M. Stillman, Commander of United States Air Force, Lackland Military Training Center, Texas, with reference to Richard F. Lang, stating that his basic period is progressing satisfactorily.

Richard intends to study electronics upon conclusion of his basic training. A nephew of Mr. Gabel he was raised by Mr. and Mrs. Gabel. He graduated from Lake-Lehman High School, class of '59. Richard would like to hear from his former school mates.

Mt. Zion

One of our Mt. Zion girls is graduating from the University of Pennsylvania Hospital School of Nursing. She is Miss Harriet Howell (I knew her as a little girl when she was called "Happy" Howell, a good descriptive name), daughter of Mrs. Ida Howell who teaches in West Pittston School. The graduation ceremonies will take place in Philadelphia on June 5. Harriet was in the class of 1958 in West Pittston High School. Those who expect to attend her graduation are her sister, Mrs. Richard Dymond; her mother, Mrs. Ida Howell and her grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Howell.

When I was over on the other road at Richard Dymond's getting this news a little girl stood by waiting a chance to get a word in edgewise. She stood before me and asked, "Do you want to know how many children there of us?" And I said "Yes, how many?" "Five," she replied. "Do you want to know how old they are?" Of course any reporter would be glad of such news. "There's Debra and Barbara, they are twins." "How old are they?" "Five." "Who else?" I inquired. "There's Ricky, he's seven." "And?" "And Robert. He's three." "That's only four." "I'm Brenda, and I'm six," she said. Now I thought that was a pretty good story, and this is my opinion, that there is a valuable Dymond cluster.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith of Mt. Zion are spending Sunday with their son's family, Keith Smith at Center Valley, Pa. Keith and his wife have two children, a boy and a girl.

Last Saturday our pastor, Rev. William Reid, Jr., attended a conference for pastors and laymen at the Federated Church of Maine, N. Y. The conference was conducted by the Town and Country Commission of the Wyoming Methodist Conference.

The Mt. Zion reporter did not get to church last Sunday. He got a call to preach at the Dallas Methodist Church in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Russell Lawry. One of the delights of supplying the Dallas pulpit is hearing the very well trained youth choir sing under the direction of Miss Fern Coldren.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lewis and Miss Nettie Parrish visited Frank Parrish in Montrose and to Nicholson to visit Mr. and Mrs. Addison Woolbedt.

A most interesting session of Neighborhood Quarterly Conferences was held Sunday night at Orange. The group included members and officials from the Center Moreland parish and the Carverton, Mt. Zion and Orange churches. It was presided over by Rev. Leon Bouton, superintendent of Wilkes-Barre District.

Two Coolbaugh Brothers In Amphibious Exercise

ONSLOW BEACH (FHTNC) — Mertyn Coolbaugh, seaman, USN, and Laing N. Coolbaugh, fireman apprentice, USN, sons of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Coolbaugh of Shaver-ton, serving aboard the tank landing ship USS Wood County, participated, May 22-29, in large scale amphibious assault exercises at Onslow Beach, N.C., with 1,000 Navy and Marine Corps personnel.

Brenda Lee Stuart

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Stuart, R. D. 2, Dallas, announce the birth of a daughter, Brenda Lee, in Nesbit Memorial Hospital on May 18. She weighed six pounds, seven ounces. Mrs. Stuart is the former Doris Vamer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Vamer, Meeker, and Mr. Stuart is son of Mr. and Mrs. George Stuart of Poplar Street, Fernbrook. They have another daughter, Pamela Jeanne, nineteen months.

A chance remark is anything a man manages to say when two women are talking.

"Information Bureaucrat" "Pickled" By Pen Queries

Children from all over the world write for information on Pennsylvania, according to the Pennsylvania Department of Commerce.

They have requested information on "fish hatcheries," "the Pennsylvania Dutchess Country" and Pittsburgh's "steel industry."

They address their letters to the "State Information Bureaucrat," "Mr. Commerce" and the "Pennsylvania Answer Department." Many request samples of coal, petroleum, rocks or minerals. One asked for a "fragrant of the Liberty Bell." A little girl from Alabama wrote, "Please send the state tree, the state bird and the Gvner."

A girl in Arizona wrote for information on the practice of witchcraft in Pennsylvania. Another, from Texas, wanted the story of "The Development of Development since 1935."

A fifth-grade boy in Long Island, New York wrote, "Please send all informashun you have on Pennsylvania. Our teach don't." A boy, age 7, in California said, "Send me everything you have on Pennsylvania. I was born there. I like California but I like Pennsylvania gooder."

A boy from Arkansas said, "We have been studying your state in social study. P.S. I thing your state is pretty." An Illinois fourth-grade girl had this concise request: "Please send me samples of Pennsylvania history, past and present."

A Washington state boy declared, "In our class we were to pick a state and I pickled Pennsylvania." A homesick 8-year-old boy near Buffalo, New York, writes, "I like Pennsylvania because I lived there four years and I would like to see some fremilyou sights."

The Department of Commerce student inquiry section services 45,000 children's requests annually. (Note to Editors: — Incorrect spellings are those of the children.)

Local Women, Honored By Historical Society

Mrs. Paul Gross, Sutton Road, was awarded an "A" in Chippendale painting, and Mrs. Harry Edwards was received as a member at the meeting of the Esther Stevens Brazer Guild of the Historical Society of Early American Decoration held at Williams Inn, Williamstown, Mass. on May 18, 19 and 20. They both entered decorated trays.

Fifty Years Associated With Wyoming Sem.

Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur H. Fleck, 420 Warren Avenue, Kingston, are this June completing their fiftieth year of association with Wyoming Seminary. Dr. Fleck has served as Teacher, Dean, President, Trustee and Advisor to Alumni.
