Local Students See Alma Mater Win Contest

Local students, Jim Borthwick, Nancy Dodson and Fred Eck, were mighty proud of their alma mater, Muhlenburg College, on Sunday when its team of two boys and two girls defeated the favored Johns Hopkins University team on the national inter-collegiate program, G E College Bowl. The College Bowl pits two colleges or universities against each other in a general information quiz every Sunday afternoon at 5:30.

The Muhlenburg Team won the $1500 Scholarship Grant for their college located at Allentown. Next Sunday these four young folks will meet a team from Bates College, Lewiston, Maine. The contest will be taped on Saturday to avoid conflict with graduation.

Jim is son of Dr. and Mrs. Malcolm Borthwick, Nancy, daughter of Mrs. Boyd Dodson, and Fred, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eck Sr. They are all home for the summer recess.

Will Go To M.I.T.

John Unger, Wyoming Seminary senior, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Unger, will enter M. I. T. in September. He was accepted also at Cornell, Lehigh, and Union.

To Visit Area

J. O. TALLY, JR.

J. O. Tally, Jr., president of Kiwanis International, will make his only official visit to Pennsylvania this year when he comes to Wilkes-Barre Wednesday, June 14. He will address representatives of clubs from all over the state at a dinner meeting at 6:30 at Wilkes College gymnasium.

Mr. Tally was elected to the presidency at the 45th annual convention of the North American service organization in June of 1960. Immediately prior to his election to the number one Kiwanis post, he served as the organization's first President-Elect, for a period of one year.

Prior to becoming President-Elect, Tally served four years as a Trustee of Kiwanis Club of Fayetteville, Lieutenant Governor and Governor of the Carolinas Kiwanis District.

Tally attended Duke University and Harvard, receiving a Bachelor's degree from the former and a Master of Laws degree from the latter. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa National honor fraternity, and Phi Delta Phi National legal fraternity. He is a Past Vice-President of the North Carolina Bar Association.

He is a former Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, North Carolina (1949-53), a Past President of the North Carolina League of Municipalities, and a former Professor of Law at Wake Forest College.

New Goods Group Meets At Kern's

Arrangements Made For Listing, Receiving

New Goods Committee for the Library Auction had its annual get-together at Herman Kern's May 24, when Stanley Hozempa, replacing former chairman Walter Mohr, presided, and made assignments.

Goods will be received at the Dallas Post between June 19 and June 30, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., for correct recording.

Workers were provided with stickers and tags for new goods, so that complete records may be kept on name of donors, value of goods, comments for guidance of the auctioneer, and other pertinent information. It is the present plan, stated Dr. Hozempa, that articles of retail value over $10, will be placed on display in advance, not allowed to come to the block without sufficient build up. Jack Stanley and Jim Alexander will take charge of advance display.

Live stock, or pets of any kind except cats, prove a strong drawing card. Dick Demmy, Lake Street, will welcome information leading to pet donations.

A number of potential workers were unable to make it last Thursday, but present at the party were these people: Auction chairman Dr. L. E. Jordan; co-chairman Dick Demmy and Jack Conyngham; chairman of New Goods Hozempa, with co-chairmen Mrs. Louise Marks, Frank Slaff and Bill Moss; John Konsavage, Robert Graham, Hanford Eekman, Mitch Jenkins, Carl Henderson, Tom Hillyer, Lyle Slaff, Warren Yarnel, Fred Jennings, Dave Schooley, John Wardell. Mrs. Stanley Hozempa acted as secretary, in the absence of Mrs. Ann Stenger, who will be aided by several assistants in keeping track of new Goods.

Mr. And Mrs. Edward Cobleigh To Celebrate 25th Anniversary
