George Burton Courtright Idetown, Dies Aged 78

George Burton Courtright, 78, Briar Crest, died Friday afternoon at Nesbitt Hospital, where he had been admitted on Thursday after suffering a heart attack. He had seemed in perfect health, and enjoying mowing the lawn when stricken.

He was buried Monday afternoon in Forty Fort Cemetery, following services conducted by Rev. Russell Lawry from the Disque Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Harvey Matyas, Raymond Walter, Paul Keiner, Leslie Rader, Maurice Evans, and Albert Jones.

Mr. Courtright moved to Idetown nine years ago, after having lived for forty years in Kingston. He spent many years with Kingston Coal Company and American Furniture Company.

His wife, Margaret died three years ago.

He was a native of Courtdale, son of the late William and Louise Hawley Courtright. He was a graduate of Wyoming Seminary.

Since moving to Idetown, he had been active in business association with his son-in-law Ralph Dixon, owner-operator of Dixon's Restaurant in central Dallas. He belonged to Dallas Methodist Church, Masonic connections included Knights Templar and Irem Temple. He was past Master of Kingston Lodge 395 P.&M.

He is survived by two daughters: Mrs. Marion Mitchell, Dumont, N. J. and Mrs. Betty Dixon, Dallas; a sister, Mrs. John Traub, Kingston, and three grandchildren.

Local Women Decorate For Garden Club Luncheon

Four local women arranged decorations for the annual all-day meeting of District 3 Garden Clubs of Pennsylvania at Irem Country Club Tuesday, at which the Garden Club of Wyoming Valley served as hostess. They were Mrs. Arnett Jones, Mrs. Roger McShea Jr., Mrs. Albert Ide, and Mrs. James Besecker Jr.

Miss Adella Stevens, former president of the Wyoming Valley group, was elected chairman of District 3.

Mrs. Henry Heineman, of Peach Blossom Creek, Maryland, demonstrated "Tables for the Collector," and a group of children from the Mentrose Junior Garden Club, excused from school for the occasion, demonstrated arrangements.

A number of mobiles related to gardening were on exhibit.

Eighty women attended the 12:30 luncheon.

Need Speed on Insurance?

If your insurance claim is still unpaid after six months you'll know—the hard way—The Big Difference between buying insurance directly from a company and through an independent insurance agent.

Will a company salesman stand by you when you have a claim? Doesn't it make better sense to buy through an independent agent who places your interests first?

We are an independent insurance agency. Our job is to see that you get the right policy from companies with good records for paying claims—to handle details, cut red tape and speed payments due you.
