Married Recently

MR. AND MRS. HARRY E. FREEMAN

Jane Kay Newell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Newell, Noxen, recently became the bride of Harry Edward Freeman, son of Edward Freeman and the late Mildred Freeman of Dallas R. D.

Rev. John Gordon performed the double ring ceremony in the Gospel Tabernacle at Noxen. Eloise Montross, Noxen, played the wedding music and Ann Whitesell, Sweet Valley, was soloist.

Matron of honor was twin sister of the bride, Jean Fay, and bridesmaids, Eileen Crispell, Wilma Jean Lyons and Kathryn Hackling, all of Noxen. Best man was Jack Winters, Dallas, and ushers, Alvin Cook, Walter Weiss and Edward Miner. Joey Newell was his sister's ring bearer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore ballerina length gown of white chantilly lace over taffeta styled with boat neckline, long tight sleeves tapered at the wrist, and full bouffant skirt embroidered with sequins and pearls.

Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a tear drop crown of sequins and pearls and carried a bouquet of white carnations and sweet peas.

Matron of honor chose ballerina length gown of aqua silk organza, made with boat neckline, short cap sleeves and full skirt. She wore a matching tight fitting hat and carried aqua carnations. Maids of honor all selected lilac chiffon gowns of ballerina length, matching hats, and lilac carnations. Little flower girl wore dress made like that of the bridesmaids in yellow and carried a basket of rose and carnation petals.

Mrs. Newell, mother of the bride, wore street length dress of biege silk over taffeta, matching accessories and shoulder bouquet of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception for a hundred fifty-five guests was held at the Idetown Fire Hall and the couple left for Niagara Falls.
