DIANE M. HORLACHER

Diane M. Horlacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Horlacher of 426 Walnut Street, Naticoke, will wed Severn B. Newberry, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Severn B. Newberry, 91 Wellington Ave., Dallas. The couple will be united in marriage by the Reverend Augustus Tietbohl, St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Naticoke, June 23 at 4:00. Mr. Newberry's best man will be Robert Strunk, Kingston and Mr. and Mrs. David Vanfossen, Huntslocks Creek, will stand as attendants for the couple. Brenda Lee Spicer is to be flower girl and the bride's sister Margie Horlacher will act as bridesmaid.

Immediately following the service a reception will be held at the church.

Tentative plans for a Florida honeymoon are dependent upon the condition of the groom's father now under medical care. As an alternative the couple may spend their vacation at Otter Lake in the foot hills of the Adirondacks.

Miss Horlacher, formerly employed by Fowler Dick and Walker is a graduate of Naticoke High School and attended Wilkes College, Sev., who attended Deland Florida High School and Westmoreland, is employed with his father at Sev Signs.

The Newberrys will take residence at 91 Wellington Ave., Dallas.

Phyllis Helen Crocker, Bride Of Daniel Edwards, Carverton

The marriage of Phyllis Helen Crocker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Crocker, Trucksville Gardens, to Robert Daniel Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edwards, Carverton took place Saturday, June 17, at noon.

Pastor George R. Deisher performed the double ring ceremony in Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Kingston. A reception was held immediately following at the Continental Inn.

Mr. Crocker escorted his daughter who wore a gown of silk organza and chantilly lace over net and taffeta. The basque bodice was styled with scalloped portrait neckline and long fitted sleeves tapered at the wrists and fastened with lace-covered buttons. Her veil was of bridal illusion fastened to a pearl encrusted bow of silk organza. She carried a bouquet of white roses and ivy.

Marilyn J. Hoeg, a close friend, was maid of honor. Mrs. Jeanne O'Neill, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Sally Dawn Edwards, sister of the groom, bridesmaid. The bride's attendants wore delicate shade of blue silk organza over taffeta with daisy lace appliques on the bodice and skirt. The dresses were styled with a scoop neckline and brief sleeves. They wore matching blue bows of silk organza with an illusion veil and each carried a bouquet of marigolds with ivy.

Best man was Lloyd E. Livingston. Ushers were Leroy Platt and Daniel O'Neill.

The mother of the bride selected a dress of beige chantilly lace over aqua taffeta with matching hat and beige accessories. The groom's mother wore beige silk organza over a flowered taffeta with beige accessories. They both wore corsages of talisman roses.

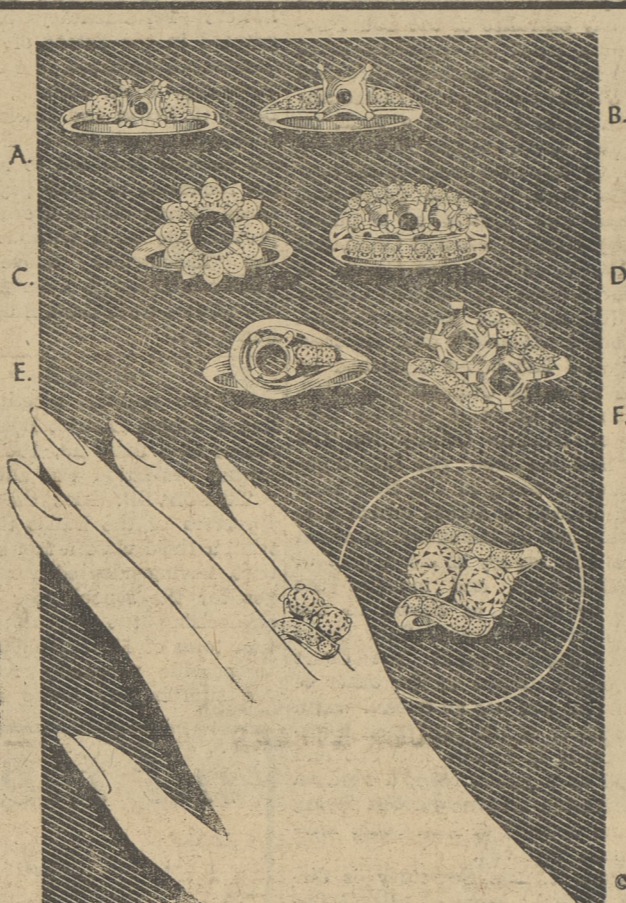

Both Miss Crocker and Mr. Edwards are graduates of Westmoreland High School and Bloomsburg State College. Mr. Edwards served in the U. S. Navy and has taught at Clarks Summit-Abington Joint School this past semester.

After a wedding trip to California, the couple will reside at Kintnersville where they have teaching positions September 1.

The bride was entertained at a variety shower given by her attendants.
