Mt. Zion

We two retired ministers living in the Mt. Zion territory get together to compare notes occasionally. Last Sunday morning the Rev. Ralph Weatherly of "Happy Hill" preached at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Scranton. And I, Charles Gilbert, preached at Douglass Presbyterian Church in the Lee Park section below Wilkes-Barre.

Monday the Rev. Ralph Weatherly motored to North Carolina accompanied by his granddaughter Lynn Talmadge to visit Mr. Weatherly's brother Carl Weatherly.

Next Sunday the Rev. Mr. Weatherly will be guest preacher at the vespers service at Wyoming Camp Ground at 7.

Next Sunday Charles Gilbert will be guest preacher at the churches of the Carverton parish, 9 o'clock at Carverton, Orange at 10, Mt. Zion at 11.

Last week-end Dorothy Gilbert spent at Hackettstown at a Wesleyan Service Guild week-end, returned home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Fitzer and baby daughter, Cynthia, from Florida dropped by for a chat. They were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tom Earl. Fitzer used to be neighbors of ours at Carverton. Annabelle Earl lived up the road a ways from us then with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Earl.

The other day when I came home from town Catherine gleefully challenged: "Guess where I was today; in the middle of the pond?" I was agog. It seems Billy Miles came over bringing with him his new portable boat and had taken Catherine for a ride on the pond.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Krum (we call their place "Sherwood Forest") they built their place in a cleared place in the woods next to Howard Krum's on this road) left by plane Saturday for a week in Miami, Florida, attending the Shriners' convention.

Now with a shallow nest hurriedly built on the west end porch post the Phoebes are sitting on five white eggs. Hope she has better success this time.

We have picked our champion trout fisherman and our catfish queen, but for "hard luck champion" we nominate ten-year-old Robert Snyder who had to be in the presence of Fish Warden Culp and Pennsylvania Fish Commissioner Boyd Maynard, when he caught a twenty-nine inch muskellunge which he had to return to Lake Jean because it lacked one inch of being thirty inches long. Bobby was in the boat with the two gentlemen who were checking on other fishermen. More than three hundred boats were on the lake at the time. Better luck next time, Bobby!

Car Demolished

Sunday night a car driven by James A. Keating 37 Kirkendall Avenue, Wilkes-Barre, with Mary Sham of Kingston as the other occupant, traveling at terrific speed, went out of control and turned around in the middle of the road just below Chase Corners. The car spun off the road, rammed the stone wall in front of Ray Snyder's house, bounced back, and came to rest in the Sheldon Rice residence. Right side of the car was demolished. Kingston Township Ambulance responded, but both occupants refused to go to the hospital. Officers Jesse Coslett and Gordon of Kingston Township Police Department assisted Chief of Police Cooper. Keating had just left an outing at Keonef's Grove.
