Spring Bride

MRS. JAMES C. THOMAS, JR.

The Apostolic Blessing of Pope John 23rd was bestowed recently on the marriage of Margaret Mary Rollman, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Rollman, 21 Westminster St., Wilkes-Barre, and the late Christian J. Rollman and James C. Thomas Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Thomas, 79 Norton Ave, Dallas.

Rev. George R. Demuth performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial High Mass in St. Nicholas Church. The bride placed a presentation bouquet on the altar of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Mrs. Mary Marzen was organist and Mrs. William P. Thornton was soloist.

Mr. Marlyn Simon was maid of honor. Mrs. Robert J. Lewis, sister of the bride, matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Carole Ann Thomas, Tally Mary Thomas, sisters of the bridegroom, and Rose M. Testen.

John A. Thomas served as best man for his brother. Ushers were John George, uncle of the bridegroom; Frank G. Rollman, brother of the bride; Lawrence Joseph, cousin of the bridegroom and Charles P. Allabugh.

Given in marriage by her brother, Joseph C. Rollman, the bride was attired in gown of light ivory silk peau de soie designed with an open portrait neckline finished with seed pearls and crystal beads. The long sleeves pointed at the wrists featured the same beading as the neckline. The fitted bodice and wedding ring waistline were finished with a tailored bow and streamers to the edge of the bell skirt. Her elbow-length veil of pure silk illusion was styled on a crown embellished in brilliant pearls and crystals and fell in three tiers. She carried a single long-stemmed white Duchess rose.

Attendees were attired in short gowns of leaf green silk organza over matching taffeta slips, designed with open portrait necklines to complement the bride's gown, elbow-length sleeves and a tear-drop skirt finished with miniature bows. They wore matching bird-cage hats, topped with a cabbage rose of pure silk organza, and short white kid gloves.

They carried sunbursts of lily buds shaded leaf green, with garlands of ivory tied with matching green satin showlers.

Bride's mother selected a green silk print sheath with matching coat and patent leather accessories. Her flowers were an arrangement of stephanotis and white rosebuds.

The Mother of the bridegroom chose a lilac print ensemble of pure silk, matching hat and shoes. Her flowers were an arrangement of stephanotis and white rosebuds.

A reception immediately following the ceremony was held at O'Connell's Kingston House, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to New York City.

Mrs. Thomas was graduated from Meyers High School and was employed as head book-keeper by the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. Thomas was graduated from Bordentown Military Institute and from Cornell University, where he was president of Sigma Nu Fraternity. He is associated in business with his father, James C. Thomas and Sons, Luzerne.

The couple resides at 39 Spring St., Shavertown.

Richard Major and son, Jerry, Indianapolis, Indiana, are coming in to visit his mother, Mrs. Howard Capereon. They will attend the Auction for the first time.
