Lehman

Weeks pass quickly, before you know it another Post deadline has been missed. There haven't been any Lehman items recently because I haven't called around for news. I'd like to hear if you want news from our town in print.

Did you attend the horse show? There were crowds of people at the biggest and best show yet. Festivities started off with a square dance Monday evening. A giant parade at 9 a.m. Tuesday morning followed by the main event, Harold Coolbaugh was general chairman of the event and certainly deserves a great deal of credit for organization. Committees worked diligently for many months to make the show the best ever.

Another event soon to be held, Annual Flower Show, sponsored by Friendship Class, Lehman Methodist Church August 19. To be held in newly remodeled and enlarged Lehman Fire Hall. The theme is Summer Glory in Field and Garden. Start now to plan your entries and see if your husband can come up with an idea for the "men only" classification. This is one of the most interesting facets, bringing numerous original entries.

With deep regret we note the death of one of Lehman's older residents, Oliver Whitesell. We offer the sympathy of the community to his wife and daughter. Mr. Whitesell lived in the area all his life and was active in it's affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nuss, Sr. have returned from Louisiana, Missouri where they visited their son and family. It was their first visit with little Dana Nuss, born in March.

Nusses were barely home and unpacked before leaving with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ellsworth and Louise to attend the wedding of Priscilla Hendricks, former Lehman resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Dawe and sons, Billie and Chris are spending three weeks in St. John's, Newfoundland, with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Dawe. It is an exciting trip for the boys as they travel part-way by boat and then travel roads where herds of moose are common.

My father-in-law, A. B. Simms has returned from Wilkes-Barre General Hospital where he was a medical patient.

We must apologize to the dogs in the neighborhood. We were sure the upset garbage cans every day or so were the work of hungry dogs who prowled about at night. Well, the prowler has been seen and it is not a dog. Did you guess? It's a bear cub. Now what do we do?

Lehman Boy Scouts with their leaders, Gordon Dawe and Bill Simms slept out in our woods last week. (We didn't know about the bear then.) The boys set up camp, hauled water and wood, assigned cooking and clean-up chores and thoroughly enjoyed their first camp-out.

Forty-nine parents and friends attended the annual recital of pupils of Mrs. Homer Middleton recently. A varied program of piano and vocal solos, readings, duets and trios and an eight hand selection by Diane Shoultice, Shirley Disque, Jane DelKanic, Richard May.

Ice cream, strawberries, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. Middleton to the following participants and their guests: Stewart Calkins, Kathy May, Richard May, Linda Hagen-baugh, Elizabeth Shaver, Peggy Disque, Bobby Disque, Ruth Adamshick, Jane DelKanic, Shirley Disque, Joyce DelKanic, Patty Major, George Major, Jean Louise Johnson, Billy O'Brien, Linza Sutton, Diane Shoultice, Joy Johnson.
