Married In June

MR. AND MRS. RAY WANDEL

Beverly Anne Crispell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Crispell, Harveys Lake, recently became the bride of S. Ray Wandel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wandel, Noxen. Rev. Donald Nulton, uncle of the bride, assisted by Rev. Norman Tiffany, pastor of the Idetown Methodist Church, performed the double ring ceremony on June 3. Mrs. George May was organist and Connie Smith, cousin of the groom, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white lace over satin, featuring a sequin and pearl sash neckline and fitted bodice with long sleeves tapered at the wrist. Her veil of imported bridal illusion fell from a crown of orange blossoms and she carried a white Bible marked with a white orchid and lilies of the valley.

Linda Gray, Harveys Lake, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Margaret McHose and Priscilla Williams, sister of the groom. Diane Swinehart, Kirkwood, Pa., cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

Maid of honor wore a gown of blue organza designed with lace bodice, jewel neckline and long sleeves. Bridesmaids were attired in pink chiffon gowns designed with lace bodices, bateau neckline and cap sleeves. Attendants wore headpieces of chiffon bows matching their gowns and carried colonial bouquets of tinted carnations.

Jerry Talent, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Arnold Williams, brother-in-law of the groom and William Casterline, cousin of the bride. Elton Wandel, brother of the groom, was junior usher.

The bride's mother chose a blue chiffon street length dress with three-quarter length sleeves and scoop neckline. She wore white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The bride, a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School and Wyoming Seminary School of Business, is now employed by the Shoemaker Adjustment Agency in Wilkes-Barre. The groom is also a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School. He is employed by the Commonwealth Telephone Company in Dallas.
