

Mid-Teen Campers Gather At Sky Lake

Rev. Edwin Lintern, pastor of Center Moreland Methodist Church, spent week of June 30-July 1 at Sky Lake, where he superintended the Mid-Teen Camp of thirteen and fourteen year old boys and girls.

The 100 children were divided up into groups of fifteen, with two counselors to a group. Christian stewardship was exemplified by studying nature at first hand.

Lois Ryman of East Dallas was a Starns counselor. From Center Moreland, Bill Boyes was a senior counselor and his daughter Nancy a junior counselor. Ida Berlew, RN, camp nurse, was accompanied by her son Larry, five years old, and an excellent camper. Martin Schoonover was a counselor.

From Dallas Methodist Church, Lynn McCarty was on the counseling staff.

Christmas In July Planned By W.S.C.S.

Christmas in July will be celebrated by the Alderson W.S.C.S. in Alderson Methodist Church Basement, Saturday, July 22. The Bazaar will begin at one o'clock and will prove most interesting—among the booths will be one for Baked goods, one for fancy work, one for Christmas decorations, one for home made candies and many more.

Youth For Christ

Pat Hoover and Gloria Long were delegates to a recent Youth For Christ convention at Ocean City.

Mrs. Harriet Dymond, 79, Buried At Dymond Hollow

Mrs. Harriet Fitch Dymond, of Dymond Hollow, was buried in Dymond Hollow Cemetery Saturday afternoon, Rev. Edwin Lintern conducting services from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clara Brace, of Idetown.

Mrs. Dymond, 79, died Wednesday at Nesbitt Hospital, where she had been admitted four days earlier after several months of failing health.

Daughter of the late Judson and Rosetta Heitsman Fitch, she was born at Lockvills. Sixty years ago she moved to Dymond Hollow, where she was a member of the local Methodist Church and its W.S.C.S. Her husband, Dana, died fourteen years ago.

She is survived by these children: Elmer L. Dymond of Dallas; Mrs. Grace Peal, Idetown; Mrs. Grace Peal, Wyoming; Stanley Dymond Hollow; Mrs. Marian DeGraw, Clarks Summit; sixteen grandchildren, and twenty-one great-grandchildren.

Andrew Sholtis Jr., 47, Suffered Long Illness

Andrew Peter Sholtis, Jr. died Thursday morning at his home in Lehman, following a long illness. He was buried Monday morning in St. Stephens cemetery, Rev. Francis A. Kane pronouncing benediction at the grave. Rev. Michael Rafferty celebrated a Mass of Requiem at Gate of Heaven Church, following services from the Disque Funeral Home.

Mr. Sholtis, 47, suffered from antrasilicosis, contracted from the mines where he worked as a lad. For many years he was a machinist at the Dallas Engineers.

Son of Mrs. Pauline Vojtko and the late Andrew Sholtis, he was born in Swoyersville. He lived at Harveys Lake until 1937, when he moved to Lehman. He belonged to Gate of Heaven Church.

Surviving are his widow, the former Margaret Yanek of Lehman; a daughter, Mrs. Dolores Ruiz, at home; two brothers; John, Edwardsville; Joseph, Harveys Lake; and a sister, Mrs. Helen Fitten, also of Harveys Lake.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Dolores Ruiz, 1616 N. Elm St., Sunday afternoon, July 16. Burial was in the Grange Hall. The church school will meet in the church basement. The Primary Department will meet in the church school, and the Junior Department will meet in the Grange Hall. These classes will provide for children from four through eleven years of age.

Kunkle WSCS Plans Annual Picnic August 9

Kunkle Methodist WSCS plans its annual picnic in the form of a covered dish luncheon August 9, at 12:15, in Fireman's Grove. The organization will furnish cold cuts, buns, and beverages.

Members, meeting with Mrs. Ray Henney Wednesday afternoon, were asked to bring to the picnic twenty-five cent articles to use as prizes.

Mrs. Henney was assisted by Mrs. Victor Rydd, Mrs. Lew Williams presided.

Present were Mesdames Calvert Birnstock, Lewis Nulton, Alan Brace, Ralph Ashburner, Fred Dodson, Edgar Kerlin, Gideon Miller, Gomer Elston, Lew Williams, Ralph Elston, George Landon, William Brace, Julia Kunkle, and the hostesses.

Card Of Thanks

The family of the late Andrew Sholtis Jr. wishes to extend sincere thanks to neighbors and friends who assisted in any way during the illness of Mr. Sholtis and the days of the bereavement.

Fernbrook

Mrs. Truman Steward, Stroudsburg, accompanied her parents Rev. and Mrs. Ira Button of E. Overbrook Ave. to Pen Yan, N. Y. to visit her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Steward. They also visited Mrs. Button's sister, Mrs. David Ace in Buffalo for a few days. Rev. Button was the supply pastor for the Sweet Valley Christian Church on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Johnson and children, George and Sharon, Washington, N. J. spent a few days visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Shaver, Jr., Overbrook Ave.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder, Jr.; Terrace St. and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder, Sr. of Claude St. in Dallas.

Curtis Buynon of Main St. has returned home after being a patient in Nesbitt Memorial Hospital where he submitted to surgery last Wednesday. "Kurt" is the manager of the East Dallas Teen-Age Ball Team.

Mrs. Ruth Williams of Plymouth spent a few days visiting Mrs. Jane Sewers of Fern St.

Mt. Zion

Saturday night callers at Gilberts' Dunmoy were Mrs. Joseph Bruno and daughter Mrs. Ted Walton, and Mrs. Alex Smith. They came to see Catherine's plants and flowers all over the place. Before they went I had to bring them in to show them our completed kitchen cupboard.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruno, Mr. and Mrs. Walton were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Smith for a chicken barbecue presided over the Alex Smith as "chef". They say that all he lacked was a chef's white hat!

Foot note to news item about Leon and Jean Emanuel's trip. They left their little boy, David, down there and he fell and broke his elbow.

Rev. Robert O'Leary is officiating. Masses are scheduled each morning at 7 and 8 during the Novena.

Indian Guides Honor Stefan Hellersperk

At the July council meeting of the Wyoming Nation of the Back Mountain YMCA Indian Guides, Stefan Hellersperk was presented to the Nation as Honorary Brave Weetomp. Upon bestowing the honor, Chief Running Creek Heslop explained that Weetomp is the Indian name for friend. Chief Running Creek said that Mr. Hellersperk has been a true friend to the Indian Guides by providing them with an area on his property to be used for Nation Council meetings and outings.

Preceding the council meeting, braves of the Capouse, Delaware and Shawnee Tribes cleared brush from the council circle area.

Following the council meeting games were enjoyed, and braves cooked their evening meal over the open fire.

Lily Gardens Will Be At Peak This Weekend

Rev. Charles H. Frick says: The smaller early lilies will soon be gone, but the large trumpet varieties are nearing the peak of bloom. The gardens of Loren Keller at Idetown and at the parsonage of Huntsville Christian Church may be visited this week.

Friday, Saturday, and Sunday evenings are recommended, as the fragrance is far higher in the evening, when night-flying moths must be attracted to the blossoms for purposes of pollination.
