

Houses Being Painted

Three houses on Franklin Street are being painted white: the Cecil Sutton home and that of William Berti, side by side, with matching green trim; and at the top of the hill, Carrie Caperton's house.

Midway of the block, concrete block is being torn away to provide space for a steeply sloping terrace and new steps.

Pet Rabbits Mangled

Two huge pet rabbits belonging to Charlie Chase were torn to pieces by a marauding animal Tuesday night, as the Chase children slept not ten yards from the wire netting enclosure on Pinecrest Avenue.

Bowling News

By DORIS MALLIN

Summer bowling at Crown Imperial Lanes this year has been great fun! With the formation of several new leagues, (men, women and mixed) there has been activity around the popular recreation center every night.

Tony Bonomo has pulled most of the leagues together to make plans for one big celebration at end of season. Newly formed Monday night men's league will not join the others and Tuesday night mixed league, former four years ago, will hold its annual outing as usual in August.

Most recent reports from leagues show high scores turned in by familiar names. Thursday Party League featured Sid Fielding 226-623; Jim Gansel 255-617; Ron Fielding 232; Joe Rodda 613.

Friday Party League had Tony Plata on top with 213-600; P. Hospodor 248-590; S. Bonomo 215; J. Carsman 213-566. Seven O'clock Friday Night League had on record Joe Bogdon 261-599; Bob Moore 233-598; Charles Else 578; Karl Blight 237.

At the end of June, Boxers and Bloodhounds led Tuesday's Canine League. Huskies led total pins with 3053 and single game of 1055; Boxers had 3045 and 1051.

Individual high series were posted by Al and Marie Ciccarelli with 625 and 539; Gloria Grant 535; Tony Bonomo 550; Dean Weale 550; Helen Bonomo 525. High games were posted by F. Ritchie 235; Marie Ciccarelli 232; Al Ciccarelli 225; Dean Weale 207; Mary Weale 204; Helen Bonomo and Gloria Grant 196 each.

Leading the league with highest averages were Al Ciccarelli 179 and Dean Weale 172. Topping the girls was Marie Ciccarelli with 160.

Honored On Birthday

Mrs. James LaBar was guest of honor at a birthday luncheon at the Scandinavian Motel, Ricketts Glen, recently. Present were Mesdames Charles Hosler, Donald Paeglow, Carl Daubert, Emma Roes, Forest Roesse, Stuart Williams; Carol Ann Williams.

The guest of honor received a bouquet of mixed spring flowers.

No Charge, Says Hedden

Staking out the area for the new Lake-Lehman School has been done by Raymon Hedden and Company, but tax-payers need feel no alarm, says Mr. Hedden. He is not charging for this service unless he gets the contract. He had a surveyor at loose ends, and kept him busy.
