Margaret L. Gunton, June Bride

Mrs. Spencer A. Holmgren, Jr.

Margaret L. Gunton, lovely June bride of Spencer A. Holmgren, Jr., is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gunton, Noxen. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer A. Holmgren Sr., Dallas.

Reverend John Gordon, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Noxen, performed the double ring ceremony, Saturday, June 10. Mrs. Eloise Montross, cousin of the bride was organist, and soloist was Miss Wilma Weidner.

Assisting the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Kenneth Denmon, Noxen. Attending were Ellouise Holmgren, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Robert Bennett and Mrs. Bernard Dendler of Noxen.

Paul Williams of Haddonfield, N. J. cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were John Gunton, brother of the bride; Kenneth Denmon, her brother-in-law, and Robert Bennett of Noxen.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white bridal gown. The Chantilly lace bodice was styled with a Sabrina neckline trimmed with sequins and lace sleeves. The skirt of pure silk organza over taffeta featured a lace peplum forming a bow and chapel train in back. Her elbow-length veil trimmed with lace appliques was arranged from a Victorian crown of pearls.

Her attire was beautifully complimented by a pearl necklace, a present from the groom. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, babies'-breath and green ivy.

Bridesmaids wore identically styled gowns of silk organza over taffeta made with pleated bodices and bell-shaped skirts trimmed with satin bows centered with pearls. Matron of honor was attired in pink; Miss Holmgren in yellow, Mrs. Bennett in blue and Mrs. Dendler in green.

Their headpieces, which matched their gowns, were cabbage roses with nose veils. They carried bouquets of carnations, babies'-breath and green ivy.

Flower girl, Pamela Denmon, niece of the bride, wore a lilac dress styled like those worn by the attendants. She wore a spray of matching flowers in her hair and carried a basket of roses. Ring bearer was Charles Gunton, nephew of the bride.

Mother of the bride chose a pink lace over taffeta dress with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a dress of beige lace over taffeta with beige accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. William Gilmore of Noxen, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Mary Rowe of Dallas, the bridegroom's grandmother, wore green print dresses with corsages of pink roses.

Reception followed in the church parlors, after which the couple left on a trip to the St. Lawrence Seaway and Upper New York State, for which the bride chose a beige sheath with white accessories. They are residing at Noxen, RD 1.
