The only fish fresher than Acme's are still swimming! When a fish is caught for your Acme Markets, it's cleaned and frozen before its friends even notice it's missing. Not on the shore. Not in the store. Buy right on the spot, in the boat... fresh as fresh can be. Fresher, sure, than fish "kept on ice," the way it is in most other stores. So if you want to cook a really fine kettle of fish — if you'd like the most complete selection (usually about 50 kinds of the most completely delicious seafood, 12 months out of the year — get yours at Acme. You'll see why more and more women are saying, "Meet me at Acme."
