Going fishing is the only way to get seafood fresher than Acme's . . . because Acme seafood is cleaned and fresh-frozen right on the boat. Not just "put on ice"—good enough for most stores—but deep-frozen minutes after pulled from the sea . . . to assure real ocean freshness for your table. And you'll find a far greater selection (usually about 50 kinds) at Acme . . . 12 months out of the year. Just one more reason why more women are saying "Meet me at the Acme."
