Ruth Rifenburg, Beaumont Becomes Mrs. Edward Lewis

Ruth Rifenburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rifenburg, Beaumont, became bride of Edward Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis, Sarasota, Florida, in a recent ceremony in the Beaumont Baptist Church.

Rev. George Pickett, Dallas, performed the double ring ceremony. The church was attractively decorated with palms and ferns, gladioli and carnations.

Mrs. Arla Charney was organist and Miss Janis Golbe of Eatonville sang, "I Love You Truly," "O Promise Me," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ankle-length gown of white nylon lace over taffeta, with a scalloped neckline. The gown featured a bustle effect formed by tiers of lace ruffles cascading down the back. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a beaded crown. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white roses and carnations with baby breath on the ribbon streamers.

Matron of Honor, Mrs. Charles Seward, cousin of the bride, wore a pale pink chiffon over taffeta dress with matching stole and gloves and headband. She carried a Colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations and baby breath.

The Junior bridesmaid, Miss Wilma Rifenburg, sister of the bride, wore a yellow chiffon over taffeta dress with matching streamers tied in the back. Gloves and headband to match. She carried a Colonial bouquet of yellow and white carnations and baby breath.

The groom's attendants were Sherwood Denmon of New Jersey and Robert Rifenburg, brother of the bride. Ushers were John Rifenburg of Long Island cousin of the bride, and Walter Weiss of New Jersey.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Rifenburg wore a white lace over pink taffeta dress with white accessories. The Mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Lewis, chose a dress of orchid flowered silk organza, with white accessories. Both Mother's wore pink rose corsages.

A reception followed for 200 guests at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the wedding.

The former Miss Rifenburg attended Beaumont and the Dallas Area Schools. She was employed at Gammings Shoe Factory in Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Mr. Lewis attended Beaumont grade school and graduated from Sarasota High School. He served three years with the armed forces. Two of them he spent in Germany with the United States Band and assistant chaplain. He is presently employed by the Sarasota News.

The couple left Sunday for Sarasota, Florida, where they will make their home.

Pre-nuptial showers were given by Mrs. Merton Rifenburg and Wilma Rifenburg, Mrs. Charles Seward and a personal shower by Mrs. Joseph Gavek.
