Fitzgerald Family Returns To States

Sergeant and Mrs. Covell Fitzgerald and children, Larry and Anice Marie have returned to the States after serving three years in La Rochelle, France where the sergeant is stationed with the Army. They are visiting the Blairs on Highland Avenue, Trucksville before they report to Kentucky.

Anice Marie being too young to attend the base schools went to first grade with French children of the town. By the end of the school year she was able to read and write French and the multiplication tables. The children all learn to write with pen and ink and are allowed very few errors.
