Married August 5

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS E. RICHARDSON

Saturday, August 5, Carol Ruth Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Weaver, Tunkhannock R. D. 2, became the bride of Thomas Edward Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Richardson of Terrace Street, Dallas. Rev. Edwin Lintner performed the ceremony in Centermoreland Methodist Church at 2 p.m. Gwyn Evans played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore floor length gown of white peau de soie styled with hoop skirt, tight bodice with Sabrina neckline and short scalloped sleeves. Rose Appliques and a large bustle bow finished off the back of the gown. The elbow length veil of imported French illusion fell from a Juliet camp of seed pearls and sequins and she carried a Colonial bouquet of white carnations and ivy.

Bridesmaid was Margaret Beth Weaver, and junior bridesmaid, Alice Sue Weaver, sisters of the bride of Centermoreland. They chose identical ballerina length gowns of turquoise silk organza, matching headbands with nose veils and swing bouquets of yellow carnations.

Mrs. Weaver, mother of the bride, selected ivory colored street length dress embroidered with pink rose buds, matching picture hat and shoulder bouquet of pink roses and Mrs. Richardson, mother of the bridegroom, beige sheath of silk organza, matching tight fitting hat and shoulder bouquet of yellow and bronze orchids.

Best man for Mr. Richardson was his twin brother, Robert, and ushers, James C. Thomas, Shavertown, and Harry Lee Ohlman, Collingswood, N. J.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors and the couple left for the Thousand Islands and Ontario. They reside in their newly built ranch style home at Centermoreland.

Mrs. Richardson is a graduate of Westmoreland High School. She is employed by U.G.I. in Kingston. Mr. Richardson was also graduated from Westmoreland High School and served with the U.S. Navy. He is associated with Back Mountain Lumber and Coal Company.
