Anne Lou Whitesell Becomes Bride Of Robert Paul Smith

Anne Lou Whitesell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Whitesell, Sweet Valley, became the bride of Robert Paul Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Smith, of 817 Second Avenue, Crofton, on Saturday, September 2.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. Kirby Jones, assisted by Rev. Leslie Glouden, at the First Christian Church, Sweet Valley, Mrs.

Arthur Cragle, the bride's sister, was soloist and Dean Long was organist.

Pat Perkins, Sweet Valley, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Alice Whitesell, the bride's sister, Sharon Hannis, Ashley; and Linda Morris, Shickshinny.

Doran Edwards of Levittown was best man and ushers were Charles Steinruck, Sweet Valley; Edward Smith, Arlington, Va., the bridegroom's brother, and Edward Mason, Pennel.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore gown of bridal satin trimmed with Chantilly lace. It was styled with long tapered sleeves and a chapel train. Her veil of French illusion was arranged from a crown of Chantilly lace and pearls. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, a gift of her great-aunt. She carried a nosegay of white pompons and lilies of the valley with white streamers.

Maid of honor was attired in hunter green taffeta dress featuring a scoop neckline and short sleeves. She chose matching hat of roses with short veil. Bridesmaids were similarly dressed in gold taffeta. They carried nosegays of yellow pompons with harmonizing streamers.

Flower girls were Ruth Perkins, Sweet Valley, and Daryl Hannis, Ashley, cousins of the bride. They wore identical dresses of gold taffeta with matching headbands of taffeta roses.

David Cragle of Montoursville, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

The bride's mother chose Dior blue lace dress with matching velvet hat and corsage of white pompons, and mother of the groom, dawn blue lace dress with beige accessories and corsage of white pompons. Mrs. John W. Hannis, Ashley, grandmother of the bride, wore turquoise lace dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink pompons.

A reception was held at the church hall following the ceremony.

Mrs. Smith is a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School. Mr. Smith is a graduate of Bristol High School and Prairie Bible Institute, Alberta, Canada. He is presently a member of the staff at New Tribes Mission, Woodworth, Wis., where the couple will reside.

A personal shower for the bride was given by Patricia Perkins.

Married In Brooklyn

MR. AND MRS. MORTON Z. BAUMGARTEN

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Carole R. Markowitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Markowitz, Brooklyn, to Morton Z. Baumgarten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Baumgarten, Sterling Avenue, Dallas.

The ceremony was performed at the Aperia Manor, Saturday, August 26, Cantor Kalman Kalish officiated. The wedding music was furnished by the Richard Allen Orchestra of New York City.

The bride wore gown of white peau de soie reembodyered with alencon lace and ending in a chapel train. Her veil of illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stenanthotis on a Bible.

Susan Markowitz was her sister's maid of honor and Jill Binder, niece of the bride, was junior maid of honor.

Sidney Schnell, brother-in-law of the bridegroom of Brooklyn, acted as best man and Jeffery Markowitz, brother of the bride, as junior best man. Ushers were Marvin Stanislawsky, Paul Stanislawsky, Steve Baumgarten, Roy Kanopsky, Marvin Kaplan, all cousins of the bridegroom, and Julie Bender and Peter Ashe, friends. Ringbearer was Stuart M. Schnell, nephew of the bridegroom, of Brooklyn.

Mrs. Baumgarten attended Brooklyn College and will resume her studies at the University of Bridgeport. Her husband is a graduate of New York University School of Engineering where he was a member of Tau Epsilon Phi fraternity and Pi Tau Sigma, mechanical engineering honor society. He will do post graduate work at Yale University. Mr. Baumgarten is employed with Sikorski Aircraft as a mechanical engineer.

After a wedding trip to Florida the couple will live in Bridgeport, Conn.

Prynn-Grauer Vows Are Recited At Lovely Candlelight Service

At a 7:30 o'clock candlelight ceremony performed Saturday evening in the Ingalls Park Methodist church, Chicago, Ill., Mary Alice Prynn exchanged wedding promises with Stanley Jack Grauer.

Rev. Harold Stevens officiated at the service, uniting in holy matrimony the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glendon L. Prynn, 2106 E. Washington St., and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Grauer, 6 Independence Ave.

Appropriate wedding selections were played throughout the ceremony by Grace McKee, organist, who also accompanied the guest soloist, Albert Kuempel.

Escorted by her father to an altar flanked by twin bouquets of white gladioli and mums, the bride wore a gown of white rosepoint lace and silk organza. The bodice was underscored with a self fabric bow and silk organza piping accented the scalloped neckline and elbow-length sleeves. Self-fabric bows created interest at the back of the bouffant skirt that swept into a chapel train.

Adorning her head was a coronation crown embedded with seed pearls and iridescents from which her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion fell. She carried a cascade bouquet of stenanthotis centered by a white orchid and backed by huckleberry leaves.

The bride's sister, Patricia Prynn, carried out the duties of maid of honor. She was dressed in gown of cloud pink silk organza over taffeta highlighted by a shirred bodice with scooped neckline and short sleeves. The bouffant ballerina-length skirt was accented by a bustle bow and French hem. Her headpiece was a matching petal cloche, and she carried a white lace fan festooned with pink tipped feathered carnations.

A rainbow effect was evidenced as the bridesmaids, Miss Wilma Ebyre of Mt. Carroll, Mrs. James Reeder and Mrs. Donald Doyle, walked up the aisle. Their gowns of sky blue, Nile green, and maize silk organza over taffeta were styled identically like the maid of honor's. Pearl and crystal jewelry, gifts of the bride, completed their ensembles.

Flower girls were Shelle Prynn and Sandra Larson, cousins of the bride, who wore orchid and white nylon frocks and carried white lace baskets filled with orchid tipped carnations.

Mrs. Prynn wore romance blue reembodyered silk organza sheath with white accessories, while the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Grauer,
