High School Senior Girls Invited To Compete In Junior Miss

Wyoming Valley's Junior Miss Pageant, is an official contest sponsored nationally by the Coca Cola Company and Bobby Brooks, and locally by the West Side Jaycees.

It is open only to girls in their senior year of high school. Purpose of the pageant is to honor the typical high school girl from the Wyoming Valley Area.

Contestants will be judged on character, charm, personality, intelligence, beauty, talent, poise, and appearance in sports and evening attire.

Final judging will be October 21st, at the Irem Temple in Wilkes-Barre. Winner will go to Reading, where she will compete in a state wide contest for Pennsylvania Junior Miss.

Pennsylvania's Junior Miss will receive a $500 cash scholarship from the Coca Cola Company, and a Governor's Scholarship to Temple, Penn State, or Pittsburg Universities.

There will be many other awards for runners up and finalists. Pennsylvania Junior Miss will move on to Mobile, Alabama, to compete in the National Junior Miss Contest, where the winner will receive a $6000 scholarship to any accredited college or university in the country.

West Side Jaycees need the active participation of high school senior girls as contestants. For more details, see your high school principal.
