To Sing In Hindu Garb

SHIRLEY F. BUTLER

Three members of the Butler missionary family, Rev. and Mrs. Harvey J. Butler and daughter, Shirley, will speak on India at the Noxen Independent Bible Church tonight at 7:45.

Color slides will also be shown and one member of the family will wear a native costume and sing in Hindustani.

The Butlers, now on furlough, have engaged in mission work in northern India since 1927 in a pioneer field on the plains where the people had never before heard the Gospel.

In addition to their usual mission work, they direct a Self-Help Institute where poor families can study and learn various trades which will

Wyo. Conference Home For Aging Invites Public To Open House Oct. 1

Rev. Russell J. Hawke, President of Trustees of the Wyoming Conference Homes for the Aging, invites the public to Open House at the Murray-Tufts-Garrett Manor Sunday afternoon, October 1, from 2 to 5. A Consecration service will be conducted at 4 P.M. by Dr. Earl V. Tolley, Scranton District Superintendent of Wyoming Methodist Conference and Dr. Harold C. Buckingham, Binghamton District Superintendent.

This Manor, which opened July 15, was made possible by the gift of Mrs. Delphine Murray Garrett of Philadelphia. The Commodore C. C. Murray Estate consists of 15 1/2 acres of land, a home and other buildings. A fifteen room residence wing and renovations to the original home have been completed at a cost of $100,000.

This second Home of the Aging in Wyoming Conference is a continuation of services rendered the Methodist Church by the family of Mrs. Garrett. The Narrowsburg Metho-
