Dallas Home Against Forty Fort; Lake Lehman Travels To Northwest

Saturday afternoon Dallas will play its third straight game at home when it takes on the Forty Fort Flyers at 2 p.m.

Forty Fort, a supposedly strong team even though losing a number of men, were picked along with Wyoming as pre-season favorites in the West Side Conference.

To date the Flyers, coached by Jim Steltzer, show a record of one win, two ties and no losses. The Flyers opened against Luzerne and were held to a surprisingly 0-0 tie. The following week Lake-Lehman was the opponent and the game wound up a 12-12 tie. Last Friday the Flyers hit the win column as they squeaked out a 12-6 win over Exeter.

Forty Fort presents a good backfield with Fredericks, McGurk, Eddy and Antunes. Up front its Keefe, Gottlieb, MacAvoy, Yarmey, Attardo, Hughes and Scott who do most of the work on offense and defense.

After the win Saturday Brominski's crew will be fired up for the Forty Fort tilt and another hard fought football game is expected.

Lake-Lehman will try and get back on the winning side Saturday when it travels to Northwest to meet the Rangers of Ken Wood.

Northwest with a 1-1 slate holds a 7-6 win over Edwardsville while losing a free-scoring affair to Nescopeck last Saturday 32-24.

Northwest also faced with the problem of transportation for its players due to such a wide area under its jointure also has a small squad.

Mainstays for the Rangers include Whitebread, Killiam, Yenzow, Romano, Valenia, Wilczinski Gensel, Shershen on the line while Stepanski, Gayewski, Hoyt, Yelitz and Yarnell share most of the backfield duty.
