Another record was set at Crown Imperial Lane this week when Bob Moore came through with a tremendous series in Friday night's Major League. Bob rolled 704 including games of 247-224-233, highest series yet posted in the league. The big series is also a first for Crown Imperial since Tony Bonomo took over almost a year ago. Danny Richards previously rolled 710 in league play shortly after Bob Hanson opened the lanes.

Plenty of action took place Friday night with more than half of the Major League hitting over 500 mark. Moore's big series set the pace for Dallas Esso as it took 3 points from Dallas Nursery. Jack Birnstock hit 197 (560). Charlie Williams led Dallas Shopping to a 3½ point win over West Side Novelty, hitting 233-214 (621) and Kardell hit 188, Matte 192 and Szura 193 led West Siders.

Shavertown Lumber slid into a tie for first place with Monk's team, when it took 4 points from Phillips Supply. Jack Yanik leading lumbermen on 203-224 (597); J. Rodda posted 197 (567) and A. Vida hit 217 (573). Rich Bonomo had 202 (561) for Phillips.

Monk Plumbing & Heating split with Mathers Black Toppers as Cliff Garris topped the pins for 232-197 (590). Myers hit 237 and Lohman 191. Cross rolled 192 for Mathers.

Mike Corgan 216-211 (582) topped Gosart's and with Husty's 190 helped split 2-2 with Parry's Gulf. Koehler hit 196 for Parry's. Lewis Reese hit 197-209 (558).

Fred Adams 203 and Ciccarelli 194 for Dallas Legion as they took 4 from Jim-Jon who had Yankoski hitting 194.

Other 500's were Ambrose, J. Thomas, Gauntlett, Landis, Gorey Varner, Bellas, Wilson, Carey, B. Allabaugh and Henness.

Neighborhood Boys
Dallas Dairy moved in to take over the lead in Back Mt. Neighborhood League with 4 points from Code's Esso. Disque Funeral dropped out of top spot to second place with 14½, after taking only 3 from Payne Printery. Payne, Beaumont Inn, Meshoppen Mart and Klass Motors are tied with 12 each and Bob and Don's team has 11.

Here is a close-knit league with places shifting constantly. Scoring has been unusually low compared to other seasons at this time, but the boys seem to have caught on this week and many 200 games were chalked up.

Jack Trudnak rolled high series of 593 for Klass Motors including 199-200-194 games. Cecil Titman, (Meshoppen) and Leo Yankoski, (Stonehurst, both totalled 584 series with Cecil posting 214-191 and Leo, 201-190-193. Charlie Else hit 191-193-195 (579) for Dallas Dairy; Joe Kravitz, 233-192 (571) for Bob and Don's.

Good series of 550 or more were rolled by H. Gaylord 222 (569); B. Pirott 201 (567); G. Bray 200 (566); A. Ciccarelli 215 (558); J. Yanik 197 (556); B. Williams 191 (556); B. Oravitz 204 (554) and E. Yankoski 197 (552). High singles went on record for Gauntlett 204; Robinson 213; Buynak 200; Garris 205; King 203; B. Bolton 202; Weale 205; Zim 205; Barsh 192; Tillotson 190; Traver 190; Birnstock 193; Vandenhoff 190; Hospodor 191; Bennett 192; Bray 190.

Meshoppen Mart rolled high series of 1061-1073-1022 (3156).

Berti Team Takes Over
A turnover took place in the George Shupp League Monday as Berti's capped 3 points in a close contest with Crispella's and took over first place with 22½ points. The truckers fought for the third game point but lost by 7 pins.

Wreckers split with Crusaders and held in second place and Raiders and Sportsmen tie up third with 20½. Raiders lost 3½ to Castorline's and Sportsmen, 3 to Meade's who has 20 points.

Dallas Lions took 3 from VFW (George Thomas, (Dallas Lions) rolled high series of 552 and Howard Ehret had individual high of 214 for Meade's. High series were few, 200's were posted by Bob Moore 213; P. Diction 213; Hudak 201; Biologowicz 205; Bonfig 211; and Mitchell 200.

Traver hit 191; Meade 194; L. Yankoski 191-194; Cadwalader 192; Morton 195; Trudnak 191; Sheman-ski 191; and J. Shalata 193-192.

Imperialettes
Eleanor Moyer and Gloria Charnitski had high scores in Imperialettes League Friday as Eleanor spilled 483 pins in three games and Gloria knocked 185 in one. Jewell Thompson posted a close 184 and Helen Bonomo, 181.

Elston's Dairy led team scoring with 729-2095 starring Moyer with 170 (483), Elaine Saddington 171 (466) and Ruth Plata 166. The "dairymaids" took 4 from Plains Blouse which had a bad night with only 160 by Marie Ciccarelli. Second game was "touch and go" with Elston's taking it by 3 pins.

O'Malia took the lead from Joe's Shop on 3 points from Garrity. Bea Carr rolled 170 (472) and Anita Pascavage hit 164 (462). Marilyn Morris had 168 for Realtors. O'Malia has 14 points. Joe's and Apex are tied with 12 each. Joe's managed ½ point in the last game from Goodman's. Rose Novrosky and Liz Weale battled it out to the last frame. Each girl finished with the same 134 game and the teams tied with 645 each. Rose had 170-161 games and 465 series in addition to Charnitski's 185. Jewell's 184-161 (469) and Liz's 175 (450) topped Goodman.

Apex took 4 from Delaney with

Helen's 181 high score, Marg Milne hit 162 for Delaney.

The girls are running a close contest with only 3½ points between first and fifth place.

Wife Beats Husband
Jean Monk beat her husband, Bob in Holy Rollers League Sunday night and after a close battle for first two games, ended up with 522 series against his 501. Jean's Hornets rolled against Bob's Wasps and the two teams split, 2-2. But, Jean rolled three nice games, 151-188-183 against 154-181-166 for Bob.

High series of the night was rolled by Doc Whittaker 179-199-176 (554) for Yellow Jackets. Grant Davis hit 213 for Bumble Bees. Other nice games were 187, Marge Fritzing; 167 (450), Donna Kaye; 198 (508) Dick Rudy; 178 Peter Kaye; 179 Ruth Nygren; 179 Frank Fritzing; 175 (500) Bob Nygren.

Big 500's for Ev. and Grace Evelyn Roberts and Grace Sicker battled it out for honors in Country League last Tuesday with Ev finishing up on 175-175-198 (548) and Grace turning in 191-162-178 (526).

Ev's series gave O'Connell's the boost needed to take 4 from Mac Tools and second place with 14. Evelyn Kamont 169 and Mary Dimmick had 156. Tooties Denmon hit 156 for Mac Tools.

Troster Insurance had top billing, adding 4 more points from Top Shelf for a total of 15. Carol Haddsel led scoring with 180 and Liz Weale had 164. Top Shelf was way off with only three members on hand.

Boar and Dallas Dairy split 2-2. Grace's big series was the main factor for Boar and Anita Pascavage hit 165. Casey Selingo hit 165 (460) and Flossy Lewis hit 175 for the Dairy.

O'Connell's hit 2363 total pins and two games in 800's, but Troster's topped single game high with 824. Stella Posts High Single Stella Bullford surprised all Dallas Woman's Club League Thursday when she crashed through with high single of 179 and Eleanor Moyer held up with 498 series. Roses held lineup with 12½ points and Tulips boast 12. Only two points remain between first place team and fifth place Violets.

Whiting's Leads Bowlerettes
