REGINA SARFATY

Wilkes-Barre Community Concert series will open Tuesday night, October 17, when Miss Regina Sarfaty, rising young Mezzo-soprano, appears at Irem Temple.

Mrs. Ray W. Turner, Sutton Road, President, describes Miss Sarfaty as "a petite, slender singer with a dynamic stage presence who acts with intensity and credibility. She is not only an ideal recitalist, but also a focal point on the operatic stage."

Miss Sarfaty appeared with Maria Callas in a performance of "Il Pirata" with the American Opera Society in 1959. Last season, she was with Callas in "Madame Butterfly" at the Dallas Opera, and this year she sings again in Dallas with another great soprano, Joan Sutherland, "Lucia Di Lammermoor". Also in Dallas this season, Miss Sarfaty sings in the rarely heard but beautiful "Thais". She has appeared with Renata Tebaldi in Miami in "Andrea Chenier" and in "Butterfly" in Philadelphia.

Now in her early twenties, Miss Sarfaty was born in Rochester, and grew up in Brooklyn. In 1952 she won a Julliard School of Music Scholarship and graduated in 1957. She has toured with the NBC Opera Company and appeared in performances on television with Leonard Bernstein on "Omnibus". One of her early television appearances was with the Ed Sullivan Show.

Three other community concerts this current season will include performances by Rudolf Serkin, internationally famous concert pianist; Detroit Symphony Orchestra with Paul Paray conducting and the Festival Quartet, which lists as its members Victor Babin, pianist; William Primrose, violist; Nikoali Grauden, cellist; and Szymon Goldberg, violinist.

Miss Edna Cotton, Secretary of the Association, reports that there are still approximately twenty subscriptions available before the S.R.O. sign will have to be posted. Anyone interested in securing a membership is urged to contact her at Valley 3-4362.
