THESE WOMEN! By d'Alessio

"Good! VERY good! The ball actually trembled that time!"

Mt. Zion

Did you ever like to hear your own voice echo from a hillside or the side of a barn or a rock canyon? The other day I visited Nelson Lewis in his fruit cellar. One's voice seems to roam all over the arched concrete ceiling as if trying to escape into the wide world to be heard. It does not escape! It keeps coming back to you. Most fascinating. Why should one dwell on the sounds in an apple cellar where the air is scented with the delicious aroma of apples?

I just had to stop in to visit with Janey Lewis (beg pardon, Mrs. Thomas Lloyd) who with her family is nicely settled in what was her grandmother's house two doors down from the Mt. Zion church. It is really arranged for family living. What was the dining room is plainly the family room with TV, toys, and a gentle yet spirited galloping horse! When horsey gets out of breath and the children decide to settle for quiet toys they are handy by. There you are, wholesome family life the heart of America.

Frank Parrish has been recently visiting his Parrish relatives around Mt. Zion, the first since his recovery from serious surgery.

Not far from the Mt. Zion church we have noticed several bee hives adjoining a field of buckwheat. Buckwheat fields are more of a rarity than in former years. I surmised the hives were William Perry's and sure enough they were. In talking with him about them I learned that buckwheat does not always yield the honey it smells as if it might. There was a gorgeous field of buckwheat blossoms, but the bees made golden rod honey! I had a good visit with Bill's parents Joe and Frieda Perry of Orange. Their family does them and their family-centered home great credit. We got to visiting about their daughter Catherine. She is the wife of the Rev. William H. Gray, a Presbyterian minister formerly of Glen Ridge, N. J. where he lived while acting as associate minister of a church in Newark.

Recently Rev. and Mrs. Gray and children went to Scotland where Rev. Gray is attending the University of Edinburgh. Mother Frieda gets fascinating air letters from her daughter (who writes four sheets of paper, getting her money's worth from the airmail stamp.) We readily understand how the folks at home cherish and keep those letters which are full of interest about their new environment. They miss their American central heating system but are making do with adroitness and will make many friends there.

Mrs. Stanley Jones of Orange was recently a surgical patient in Nesbitt Memorial Hospital, made a good recovery and has returned to her home.

Wesley Lewis of Mt. Zion spoke last Sunday at the Layman's Day service at Derr Memorial Church in Wilkes-Barre.

Edward Miles assisted in the Layman's Day service at Mt. Zion Sunday morning.

Leland and Evelyn LaBar from Bethlehem drove in Sunday morning. When they came down through Bear Creek they saw snow on the ground and thought at first it was some new kind of fertilizer! Sunday night Mrs. Ralph Weatherly and Catherine Gilbert attended the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Wyoming Valley Oratorio Society at St. Stephens, afterwards attending St. Clement's Church. Rev. Weatherly visited with us meanwhile at Dunmore.

The Mt. Zion Church calendar carries an announcement of open house to be held at the Mt. Zion church in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Rozelle on their 50th anniversary. The Rozelles are grand people; Ezra told me when I first acquired our present house that he was born here. The couple always look as if they are happily married. Ezra told me Sunday morning that the 50 years "didn't seem long!"

October 5, with Mrs. Delbert Meade, President, presiding. The Velvet Tones, a musical trio, consisting of Sharon Farver, Ronnie Swingle, and Bob Crispell, entertained.

The Auxiliary will have a Halloween party on Saturday October 28th, at the fire hall. An admission fee of twenty-five cents will be charged only to those not masked. Prizes will be given for the homeliest; most original; prettiest; and funniest in age groups. Doughnuts and cider will be served. The public is invited to join in the fun.

Attending were: Mesdames Delbert Meade; Russel Major; Joseph G. Kipp; Ord Trumbower; Virgil Mattice; Richard Davenport, Sr.; Michael Maransky; John Lukavitch; George Wesley, Sr.; Betty Barski; Phyllis Wolfe and her mother, Mrs. Harvey.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hough, Berwick visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Kitchen.

Gene Holcomb, will observe his sixth birthday on Wednesday. Gene, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Holcomb, Jr. is a first grade student at Ross Elementary School.

Private First Class Carl Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Martin, Pikes Creek, has arrived in Germany, where he is serving his second enlistment. He traveled to Germany by jet. His wife, the former Sue Kulp and their children, Sherry and Chester reside at Hunlocks Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Keller, Wilmington, Del. announce the birth of a son. She is the former Dixie Piper. Mr. and Mrs. Alton Johnson and daughters, Carol and Lanny spent Saturday evening as guests of the Charles Long family.

Shawn Brook Ray, our eighteen-month old son, suffered second degree burns on his neck, chest and left arm, Saturday, when he accidentally pulled a cup of hot coffee from the table. He gave us some anxious hours, but is again able to keep the other six members of the family busy watching his next move.

THE GOOD NEWS CLUB: — On Tuesday of last week, twenty-seven children from Sweet Valley area met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long for the first meeting of the "Good news club" for 1961-62. The meetings will be held each Tuesday after school. All children are welcome to join. Mrs. Betty Edwards conducts the meetings. Audrey Brobeck is Director. Sympathy of the community is
