Monroe F. Shultzes Are Wed Thirty Nine Years

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe F. Shultz, Poplar Street, Fernbrook, were pleasantly surprised with a family dinner in honor of their thirty-ninth wedding anniversary on Sunday.

The couple was married by the Rev. Adams in Christ Church, corner of Barney Street and Carey Ave., Wilkes-Barre. There are five children and fifteen grandchildren.

Present at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Shultz and daughter, Jane Mae, Mrs. William Boyes and Billy, Gayle, Brenda and Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shultz, Kevin, Peggy Jean, Jimmie, Falls Church, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Merithew Jr., sons, David and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. James Fox, Luzerne. Airman 1st Class Robert Shultz and family, stationed at Greenland, N.H. were unable to attend but telephoned congratulations.

Trucksville Couple, Married Fifty Four Years On Monday

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gay, Division Street, Trucksville, will celebrate their fifty-fourth wedding anniversary quietly at their home on Monday, October 23.

Mrs. Gay is the former Edith Hefft, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hefft of Carverton. Mr. Gay is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Gay of Carverton. The couple was married in the parsonage of the Central Methodist Church, Wilkes-Barre by the Rev. C. E. Sweet, their former pastor at Carverton, and went to housekeeping in Scranton where Mr. Gay was employed by the Scranton Railway Co.

In 1910 Mr. Gay retired and bought a farm in their beloved Carverton where the couple worked together until 1942, when they moved to their present home on Maple, now Division Street.

There are four children, Ellison and Margaret of Hyattsville, Md., Sheldon, Lime Ridge and Kathryn at home; also six grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Mrs. Gay is now a partial invalid, spending much of her time in bed and her rocking chair, reading and working cross word puzzle. Mr. Gay and daughter, Kathryn, who also works, keep the house running smoothly. Mr. Gay occasionally has time for a Mt. Grange or Junior Mechanics meeting. All the Gays are members of the Carverton Methodist Church.

Former Dallas Girl Weds New Jersey Lawyer

Lorraine Esther Hoover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Hoover, Brook Avenue, Englewood, N. J., former residents of Orchard Avenue, Dallas, was married on Saturday, September 16, to Attorney John Eric Helsing, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Helsing of 252 Demarest Avenue, New Milford, N. J.

The double-ring ceremony was performed at 4 p.m. in Trinity Lutheran Church, Tenafly, N. J., by Rev. Arthur W. Frieberg and Rev. George C. Dermer of Englewood, N. J. Hope Lawson played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Frank Kraus.

Reception was held in the Trinity Lutheran Church social hall. Following a wedding trip to Bermuda, the couple will reside at 3021 Edwin Avenue, Fort Lee, N. J.

Mrs. Amy DeWolfe To Celebrate Her Ninety-Second Birthday

"I think my mother must have made a mistake about the date of my birth, for I certainly don't feel like I'm 92 years old!" So says one of the Back Mountain's oldest residents, Mrs. Amy DeWolfe of Mill Street, Dallas.

Mrs. DeWolfe, a resident of Dallas for more than forty years, will celebrate her 92nd birthday October 24. Because of her advanced age, she can no longer get out and visit her many friends. She enjoys company and still does some of her own housework!

She is daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Elias Harris of Carverton, for whom Harris Hill Road was named. She is the last surviving member of a family of six brothers and sisters. Her husband was Odell DeWolfe.

There are three children: Ruth, with whom she lives at home; Mabel, wife of Stanley Davenport, Potstown; and Olin, Arlington, Virginia. There are two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

She is a member of Dallas Methodist Church and enrolled in the Dallas Post Eighty-Plus Club.

Mrs. Jennie Evans Is Guest At Farewell Party

Mrs. Jennie Evans, long time resident of Carverton, was guest of honor at a farewell party given by members of the Anderson Class of Carverton Methodist Church on Thursday evening, Mrs. Evans, former class teacher, will leave Wednesday to make her home at the Murray Tuft Garrett Manor, Narrowsburg, N. Y., a new Methodist Home for the Aged.

The guest of honor received a pink and white carnation corsage and a beautiful Bible. A program given by class members was followed by refreshments.

Mrs. Charles Snyder Is Guest On Birthday

Mrs. Charles Snyder, Sr., Claude St., Dallas, was guest of honor at a birthday dinner on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Shaver, Jr. E. Overbrook Ave.

The centerpiece was a birthday cake decorated in green and white. Her children gave her a piece of luggage.

Enjoying the party were, Mr. and Mrs. George Shaver, Sr., Mrs. Charles Snyder, Jr., Bobby, Jackie, Larry and Susan, Charles Snyder, Sr. and Jimmy, George, Tommy and Alan Shaver, the guest of honor and the host and hostess.

Harvest Moon Ball Plans Autumn Decor

Mrs. George Thomas was hostess to the Harvest Moon Ball decorating committee, when members met to perfect plans and set the theme of Harvest and Thanksgiving for the background of the November 4 Kiwanis Club affair at Irem Country Club.

Guests were Mesdames: Edwin Thompson, Robert Dolbear, Edgar Hughes, and representing the Keyettes who will assist with plans, Joanne Hadsel and Margaret Lawson.
