

TRUCKSVILLE

Service Club Meets

Trucksville Service Mothers and Wives Club is discussing the need to relocate the flag pole in the soldier's plot at the intersection of Harris Hill Road with Memorial Highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Snyder, have returned from two months' vacation in California as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Stafford, former residents of Kingston.

Mrs. Clarence Barton attended the wedding in Philadelphia, Saturday, of Ann Rinner and Edward Johns at Grove Street Methodist Church. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ashland, have returned from Syracuse where they visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Harry Beline.

Mrs. Arline Smith and Mr. and Mrs. David Jones of Trenton, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Hall, Birch Grove.

Mrs. Della Case and daughter, Bonnie, have moved from Rice St. to an apartment at Idetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Allabaugh spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Engle, Hyattsville, Md. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gerner and son, Edward, have returned from two weeks in Atlantic City.

Mrs. Thelma Osborne, had as guests Mrs. Esther Stair, Chicago; Mrs. Mary Elkins, Hazelton; Mrs. Ruth Tempak, Mrs. Marion Epsy, Philadelphia; and Mrs. Agnes Albright, Wilkes-Barre.

Mrs. Paul Hunter entertained at dinner Friday evening Mrs. Fred White and Mrs. Oscar Dymond, Berwick; Mrs. Howard Brenner and Mrs. Nicholas Koons, Kingston; and Mrs. Claude Hunter, Trucksville.

Frank Frew has returned from Plymouth, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Cleasby, have moved to 122 Rice Street.

Entertains Card Club
Mrs. Carl Edwards entertained at cards Wednesday night. Mrs. Harry Wenner and Mrs. John Adler won prizes. Attending were: Mesdames Robert Brown, Earl Edwards, Paul Asher, Samuel Young, Russell Stephens, Perry Grant, Nelson Ashburn, Norma Shonk, Kenneth Ellsworth, and Nesbitt Grail.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gallagher and children, Susan, Gary, and Mabel have returned after several days with relatives in Highland Park, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Anthony and son, Albert, Minersville, N.J. are visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Graham.

Birthday Greetings to Mrs. Robert Kleiner, Mrs. Walter Phillips, Mrs.

Frank Stroud, Mrs. Norman Stookley, Mrs. Millie Woolbert, George Liddicote, Sr., John Hopkins, Howard Perrin, Russell Greenley, George Owens, Gerald Thomas, Guy Shovlin, Bruce Long, Irene Parks, and Bonnie Case.

Has Birthday Party

Carol Brenner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brenner, celebrated her sixth birthday with a party Saturday afternoon. The table was decorated in the Halloween motif. Prizes were awarded to Gary Watkins and Jane Edwards.

Guests were: Mary Elston, Helen Thomas, Thelma Ritter, Arline Hughes, Gary Watkins, Cory Ellsworth, Gerard Thomas, Howard Hughes, Edward Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. John Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards, Mrs. Theodore Evans.

Mrs. Richard Walton and infant daughter have returned from Mercy Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Knorr, New Cumberland, recently visited relatives here.

Mrs. Richard Paterson is on the sales staff of Tom Hart, Real Estate, Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Searfoss, Bloomsburg, visited Mr. and Mrs. George Seymore recently. Mr. Searfoss and Mrs. Seymore are brother and sister.

Cathy Manley spent two weeks recently with her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Howard Manley in

Arthur C. Spencer Buried At Orcutt

Arthur C. Spencer, 69, former resident of Noxen, died Friday night at his home in West Davenport, N. Y. after a long illness.

He was buried in Orcutt Cemetery, following services conducted Monday afternoon by Rev. David R. Morgan, pastor of Christ Church, Mountaintop, from the Nuliton Funeral Home.

He was a butcher. His wife, the former Lydia Jones, died five years ago.

Surviving are three daughters: Mrs. John House, West Davenport; Mrs. Alexander Christman, Oneonta, N. Y.; Mrs. Sylvester Solar, Clayton, N. Y.; twelve grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Lillian Hirlinger Has Fatal Heart Attack

Mrs. Lillian Hirlinger, 80, stricken with a heart attack at her home in Trucksville, died early Monday morning at Nesbitt Hospital. She was buried Wednesday afternoon in Mossville Cemetery, following services conducted by Rev. Fred Hickok and Rev. Robert Gormond from the Bronson Funeral Home.

With the death of Mrs. Hirlinger, Mrs. Ralph Reed of Dallas, who lost her husband last year, now loses a sister.

A native of Loyalville, daughter of the late David and Rachel Robert Williams, she spent many years in Fairmount Township. She taught school in Lake Township and in Forty-Fort. A member of Mossville Methodist Church and its W.S.S., she represented the Harveysville Charge at Central Pennsylvania Conference for twenty-five years.

Upon moving to Trucksville, she joined the Trucksville Methodist Church and became a member of the Reynolds Class. Her husband Harry died in 1952.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Reed of Dallas, and Mrs. Lambert Bowman, Trucksville.

Boston.
Mrs. Paul Andrews has returned to Oswego, N. Y. after several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Neal Squire.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sutton and children, Harry, Ellen, and Martha, visited her mother, Mrs. Sarah Finley on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Perrin spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Philbin in New York.

S. D. Finney is convalescing at home after being a medical patient in Nesbitt Hospital several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Finley and family have returned from Harrisburg, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Norman Patton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kennan have returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Bradley, Lorain, Ohio. Entertains Card Club

Mrs. Ella Long entertained her card club Tuesday night. Mrs. Minerva Owens and Mrs. Millie Sands won prizes. Attending were: Mesdames Lois Croman, Sally Edwards, Eleanor Fredericks, Minerva Owens, Bernice Platt, Kay Palmer, Millie Sands, and Ella Long.

Donald Fritzes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fritzes, Cliffside Avenue, has returned from Nesbitt Hospital where he was a surgical patient.

William Coleman has been ill at his home on Maple Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Spencer recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. Allen Stanford and son, Allen, Jr., St. Marys, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Avery of Erie.

A family dinner Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johns, Carverton Road, honored Mr. Johns who celebrated his seventy first birthday anniversary. Fourteen attended.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Miers, Pittsburgh, were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Perrin.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Montgomery and son spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Montgomery, Kearny, N.J.

Mrs. Agnes Swartwood has returned to her home in Whitney, N.Y. after spending three weeks with her sister, Mrs. Hazel Bonner.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Andrews left Friday for Sidney, N.Y. to visit Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Newman. The Newmans recently announced the birth of their first child, a daughter, Carol Mae.

Calvin Perrin, Harrisburg, spent a few days recently with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Perrin.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Connell, Millville, N.J., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Winkler.

Now that autumn has come, every adult should watch out for school children—especially if they're driving cars.

George L. Garnett Was Native Of Loyalville

George L. Garnett, 67, native of Loyalville, died October 19 in Baltimore.

The World War II veteran was buried in Baltimore National Cemetery on Monday.

His parents were the late George and Hester Rogers Garnett.

Surviving are his widow, the former Elizabeth Thomas of Nanticoke; four children: James, Mrs. Dorothy Powell, Mrs. Beatrice George, all of Baltimore; Mrs. Doris Wilson, Demunds; a brother, William, of Loyalville; two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Thompson and Mrs. Charles Thompson, both of Forty-Fort; seven grandchildren.

Arthur Meyers Buried Yesterday In Plymouth

Arthur B. Meyers, 76, of Kingston, for a time a resident of Huntsville Road, Dallas, died Friday after a long illness. He was buried in Shawnee Cemetery on Monday. Rev. Robert Lukens officiated.

A native of Plymouth, son of the late Robert C. and Margaret Hahn Meyers, he was a retired minerworker of the Hudson Coal Company.

A daughter, Mrs. Mazie Young, now of Paterson, N. J. was once a switchboard operator for the Commonwealth Telephone Company; a son, John, is an employee of Natons Mills and former salesman for Duke Jones; and a son, William, is an employee of Okeanos. His widow is the former Ann Holloway. There are four grandchildren and a number of nieces and nephews.

Express Sympathy

The community expresses sympathy to Dr. G. W. Klem of Huntsville whose mother, Mrs. Anna Klem, of Larksville, died on Monday.

Local Women Plan Reception For Republican Judicial Candidates

Evangelist

REV. BOB BOYD

Rev. Bob Boyd and his wife "Aunt Peggy" will start special meetings at Glenview Primitive Methodist Church in Fernbrook October 30 and continue until November 10, announced Rev. Andrew Derrick, pastor.

Evangelist Boyd and his wife are graduates of two Bible Colleges. Rev. Boyd has been to the Holy Land twice. He was a staff member with Wheaton College Archaeological Expedition at the Old Testament site of Do-han in Northern Palestine. He has been in the ministry since 1942.

Aunt Peggy is enormously popular with the children. She will give a ten minute talk to them each evening.

Rev. Boyd is staff evangelist from the Morning Cheer Bible Conference, Sandy Grove, Maryland.

Object lessons and special music will be offered each night. The public is cordially invited.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE POST

Local women who will be hostesses at a reception honoring Republican candidates for judge Wednesday, November 1, 3 to 5, at Irem Country Club, are Mrs. James Durkin, Mrs. John R. Vivian, Mrs. William A. Shuster, Mrs. Francis Ambrose, and Mrs. Mary Parkhurst.

Introduced to constituents will be candidates Richard L. Bigelow of Hazelton; Atty. Vincent M. Quinn; and Atty. Peter Paul Olszewski.

A number of key women have been asked to get in touch with their friends, to insure a representative group, and wide coverage of the Back Mountain area.

Judge Brominski Speaks To Club

Dallas Kiwanis Hears Nominations For 1962

Judge Bernard Brominski was guest speaker for Dallas Kiwanis Club October 18 at Irem Country Club, taking as his topic, "The Domestic Relations Court" Judge Brominski pointed out the problems faced by the court by marital separation.

President Robert Matur received the report of the nominating committee, which through George McCutcheon, chairman, proposed these officers for election: President, Jerome R. Cadden; first vice president, Merrill Fessenden; second vice president, William L. Cavette; treasurer, Dr. John Blaso.

Nominations for Board of Directors, each for a three year term, were Frank Kreyh, Paul Lutz, and Robert Pary.

Sell Quickly Through The Trading Post

Newly-Weds

A GOLD STAR  GAS RANGE

Can be your second love!

BRIDES excel in cooking and baking with the modern, clean, automatic features of a new Gold Star GAS Range. What a wonderful way to start married life!

Select From

CALORIC ★ HARDWICK ★ KENMORE ★ NORGE

MAGIC CHEF ★ RCA WHIRLPOOL ★ ROPER

TAPPAN ★ SIGNATURE ★ UNIVERSAL

AT YOUR GAS APPLIANCE DEALER
EASY TERMS... FREE INSTALLATION

PENNSYLVANIA GAS and WATER Company

HALLOWEEN

ice cream SALE

1/2 GALLON 88¢

OCT. 26 (Thurs.) Through NOV. 2 (Inclusive)

22 FLAVORS

PLUS Orange - Lemon - Lime - Red Raspberry Sherbet

Come In Costume
TUES. OCT. 31st.
"HALLOWEEN"

ALL FOUNTAIN TREATS
SOLD AT 1/2 PRICE!

- SUNDAES
- SODAS
- COKES
- BANANA SPLITS
- BATTLESHIPS
- PIG'S DINNERS

OUR STAFF WILL BE IN COSTUME TOO!

You Must Be In Costume!

Forty Fort Ice Cream Co.

MAIN HIGHWAY FERNBROOK

¢ REXALL ONE CENT SALE ¢

(TEN DAYS)

Starts Thursday Nov. 2 through Saturday Nov. 11

EVANS DRUG STORE

SHAVERTOWN

"NEXT TO POSTOFFICE—AND JUST AS RELIABLE"