The All-Star Tourney came to a close Sunday with Doc O'Connell, Ashley, taking Wyoming Valley championship with 76.06 points. Congratulations go to Charlie Williams, however, who led for thirteen games in the sixteen game contest.

Charlie came very close to bringing another victory home to Crown Imperial Lanes. The defending champion lost the last two games to Doc and dropped to third place with 73.04 points. Joe Charnetsky, Luzerne, furnished second with 74.03.

O'Connell, 24 years of age, will compete against champions from other regions at Pittsburgh, November 3-5 for the state title. If he should win he will travel to the national tourney at Miami in January.

Charles Else, also of Crown Imperial, finished with 68.35.

In-Laws Compete 600's

According to Roy Stair, Al Bellas had enough 600 series for a while and it was his turn to take honors in Crown Major League. Roy bowled a beautiful 620 series (205-231) Friday, only to find that his own brother-in-law beat him by just 3 pins, with games of 191-224-208. Roy's series was his first 600 this season although he had come close twice with 598 and 599. Al has six on record, hitting one of them (636) Wednesday in Church League. No Justice, Roy! Dis-own A!

Monk Plumbing & Heating, Dallas Shopping & Shaverstown Lumber each took 4 points from Phillips, Birth's and Mathers, keeping Monk's team in front with 22 points, Shaverstown Lumber next with 19 and American Legion, 18.

Parry upset Legion team from second place by splitting 2-2 and moving itself up to fourth with 17 points. Dallas Shopping has 16 1/2. West Side Novelty took 3 from Dallas Nursery, leaving the "tree-growers" with 15 points and Gosart's and Jim-Jon split 2-2.

Top-notch team of the night was Monk Plumbing with 2715 total pins and single game of 939. Stair and Cliff Garris, 225-191 (625) doing the scoring.

Other high series posted were Kucirat 235 (591); Matte 210 (585); C. Williams 235 (591); B. Moore 203-200 (574); Gorey 193-204 (574).

Single games over 190 were rolled by Corrigan 199; Hospoda 215; C. Allabaugh 200; Kardell 190; Birmstock 192; Wilson 214-206; Muchler 198; Vida 201; Koche 190-197; S. Bonomo 193; Reese 192; Adams 191; Ciccarelli 195.

Tie In Shupp League

After Monday night's action in GEORGE SHUPP League, Bertl & Sons Trucking and Sportsmen Bar & Grill were deadlocked with 28 1/2 points.

Wreckers follow with 25, Raiders 24, Meade's and Crusaders 22, Crispell's 21 and VFW 20.

Braze 212 (567); Krajewski 203 (546); Fielding 201 (543) and Shupp 507 sparked Bertl to 4 point win over Castelline's who had Mitchell with 505.

Gallus 523 and Koche 516 led Grill team to 3-timer over Lions. George Thomas 214 (568) was the big noise for Lions in losing cause.

Day'ida 570, Tomasak 545, Lehman 501 along with P. Dieton 203 helped Crusaders cop 3 from Meade's who won first game by 4 pins. Ehret 527, L. Yankoski 510 and Kravitz 502 were high for Garagemen.

Raiders won 3 from Crispell's with Rudick rolling 525 and Molley 503. Moore 221 (553) and J. Shalata with 515 were not enough for Farm team.

Noxen VFW got into the thick of things with a 4-timer over Wreckers who were leading the roost as Art Blizzard tossed 548 and Gib Boston 508. Trudnak 522 and Moore 521 were not enough for Wreckers who lost total pins by 30.

Close Contest Among Top Teams

Disque Funeral lost 3 points to Robinson's Thursday and remains only 1/2 point in first place. Second place teams, Klass and Dallas Dairy, each lost 3 to Stonehurst and Dodson's and remain in second, tied with Beaumont Inn, which took 3 from Merl's. Stonehurst has 16 1/2 and Meshoppen, 16.

Payne Printery dropped down with 15 points after losing 3 to Meshoppen.

Top scorer was Al Ciccarelli with 205-193-198 (596) for Disque. There were not too many series of 550 plus rolled Nick Stredny hit 212 (571) for Payne; Andy Matte 201-195 (561); D. Eleanor Moyer Posts 539

Eleanor Moyer led scoring again with 539 series in Imperial League Friday night. Eleanor has been hitting top series regularly and holds highest average in the league. Her games were 166-206-167; she led her Elston's Dairy team to a 3 point victory over second place Joe's Men Shop.

Another regular top-scorer is Jean Agnew hitting in upper 400's consistently. Jean rolled 161-167 (473), spurring Apex Auto on to take 3 from Garrity, ending in a tie with Joe's, 16 points each. O'Malia featured Anita Passavage, with 193 (431) as they took 4 from Delaney and took a tight hold on top spot with 21 points. Elston's has 14.

Top scorers were B. Carr 165 (459); E. Kamont 197 (456); H. Boromo 198 (450); Morris 166; Thompson 170; Ciccarelli 164-161.

High team was O'Malia, 761-2153 total pins.

Ben Franklin On Top

Ben Franklin took 3 points from last years champs, Mercury Motors, to stay in first place of Community Service League. Boyd White's stayed close on their heels by taking 3 from Guyette's.

New league members this year are Horlacher, Roth and Weikle, Cathrail, Shuster and Stanley are old hands returned. Reimiller and Bolton are "one-two punchers" for the leaders, both hitting in the 550 class.

Liz Weale Tops Scores

Bowling for Troster's Insurance in Country League last Tuesday, Liz Weale put together a beautiful series of 498 on games of 170-180.

In addition, team mate Jean Agnew turned in 173 (464) and Carol Hadel hit 147 (443), guiding the team to a 3 point victory over Mar-Tools. The victory held Troster's in second place with 19 points while O'Connell's loomed ahead by 1/2, moving up from third after taking 4 from Dallas Dairy. Evelyn Roberts led the top team with 174 (470) with help from E. Kamont, 180.
