Neighbors Dick and Janet Dymond from Hicks river road went to Dymond Hollow for Thanksgiving with Dick's mother Mrs. Rosa Dymond. With Dick and Janet were their children Ricky, Debora, Barbara, Brenda and Robert; Dick's sister Eleanor and her son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Ken Weiskerger; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Osborne, Dick's brother-in-law and sister; Mrs. James Bonnie and her husband, Dick's sister and brother-in-law; and Dick's brother Jack and son David.

Dorothy wrote from Baltimore that she would have only the day off and was invited to have Thanksgiving dinner with the Rev. Norman Clemens family.

Malcolm and Eudora Baird and children Margie, Barry and Arthur went to Philadelphia for Thanksgiving with Malcolm's sister and family, Mrs. Raymond Ohman. The Rev. Dr. Raymond Ohman is pastor of the Oxford Presbyterian church in Philadelphia.

Glenn VanTuyle was home for Thanksgiving with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Leon VanTuyle. On the next day daughter Noreen and her husband Roger Sharpe came for a visit.

Paul and Myrtle Smith went to Bethlehem to have Thanksgiving dinner with Leland and Evalyn and their children Marcia and Linda. Marcia came home with her grandparents stopping for supper at Keith Smith's Friday night at Center Valley. That is why it was Marcia's friendly voice that answered the phone when I called to find out where Paul and Myrtle had been.

Most of the Parrishes got together for Thanksgiving with Russell, Blanche and Mary Louise Lewis on Sutton Creek road. There were Ed and Emma Miles and son Billy; Mae and Nelson Lewis; Jane and Tommy Lloyd with children Stevie and Timmy; George and Gloria Parrish and children Patty and Dana; John Parrish (Lovina had to work and couldn't come); Alma and Ad Woolbert and daughter Alice; Nettie Parrish; Carver and Jean Parrish from New Jersey with their children Carver and Lee; and Frank and Mary Parrish.

When I went on Friday morning on my chaplain calls at Pittston Hospital and Ransom Home I found that everybody had enjoyed a wonderful Thanksgiving Day and dinner and nobody was sick from it! One lady at the hospital laughingly said, "Oh we all got a pill afterwards!"

When everything smells, looks and tastes so good and you can eat just short of too much and enjoy it, there, brother, is fine art at its best!

Miss Bina W. Johnson, after visiting her sister Mrs. Howard Krum, has returned to her home in College Park, Md.

It was a lovely ceremony last Sunday at Mt. Zion church when Mr. and Mrs. Richard King presented their newest baby Raymond Wayne King for baptism. The Rev. Mr. Reid included their other two children Ricky and Janice as part of those who would be making a contribution toward the bringing up of little brother as a Christian citizen. Older children do help in this job, Mr. and Mrs. King are a fine couple. I know Dick is a good father not only by the way he acts with the children but by the fact that he has built a sturdy tree house at the edge of their woods. Someday I'm going down and interview young Ricky about what he sees from his tree house. Should be interesting.

A veteran of World War I, he belonged to American Legion Post 132; Trucksville Methodist Church; George M. Dallas Lodge 531 P&AM; time and take the residents something. This year they are asking our people to contribute hankies for men and women up there. Much better than sending them cookies and candy. They get overloaded with such things during holidays, more than they can eat. But they always have noses Anybody want to give a hankie? See any of Marjorie's class.
