JACKSON TOWNSHIP

The community extends sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lincoln on the death of Mrs. Lincoln's mother, Mrs. Edythe V. Swan, Idetown, who died after a long illness.

Superintendent Lester Squier reports 100% attendance of Lake-Lehman teachers at the recent County Teachers Institute.

Alan Cooper, son of Chief-of-Police and Mrs. Robert Cooper celebrated his sixteenth birthday on November 2 and was the honored guest at a party given by his parents on November 13, with the following in attendance: Mr. and Mrs. Gary Cooper and children, Gary, Jr. and Robin; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Cooper and Grant, Jr.; Mrs. Alice Zick, Jane Ann Cooper, Bob Smith, Chestor Rusiloski, Billy Hulse, Toby Zearfoss, Frank Sobolka.

Grant Cooper is slowly improving from his recent serious surgery. Mrs. Frank Wyrsech and daughter, Shirley, Binghamton, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Elston.

B. A. Class of Huntsville Methodist Church has elected the following officers: Mrs. Albert Sherman, Jr., president; Wesley Lamoreaux, vice president; Mrs. Paul Shuldice, secretary, and Mrs. John Fielding, treasurer.

Patrick Wilson, an Exchange Teacher from Exeter, England, was a Thanksgiving Day guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Fielding.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frantz had as Thanksgiving guests, their son, Ricky, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Frantz and General and Mrs. T. H. Atherton.

Dick Ide New York City, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clint Ide spent the Thanksgiving Holiday with his parents at their home at Huntsville.

A large flock of geese flew over Chase Manor Sunday and several deer were cavorting in the nearby fields in broad daylight.

No action has been taken by the State Highway Department to place a white or yellow guide line on the Larksville Mountain Road. A line is badly needed due to the winding road and heavy fogs which sometimes blanket it. The Huntsville Reservoir Road should also be marked for the same reason. Governor Lawrence has consistently stressed Highway Safety and I would suggest that our readers drop him a line.

Corp. Kenneth Kocher, Fort Belvoir, Va., is the guest of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wagner, Follies Road.

It is reported that a doe deer was killed by a station wagon on the Ceasertown Road, last Saturday and also that a five-point buck deer was illegally shot in that region.

Jane Warfield, has been appointed Art Teacher at Lake-Lehman School starting next September. Miss Warfield will graduate from Kutztown State College in June.

Jackson Supervisors will meet at the Fire Hall Saturday night at 7:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lincoln celebrated their thirty-first wedding anniversary Saturday. They had no formal celebration due to the recent death of Mrs. Lincoln's mother, Mrs. Edythe Swan, of Idetown, but the following people called on them: Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rusiloski, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Headman and son, Charles, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lincoln and daughter, Kim Susa.

Sympathy of the community is extended to the Barnes and Sponsor families on the tragic death of Mrs. Sponsor Barnes, her son, James Barnes, and the serious injuries of her husband, Charles Barnes.

State Highway Department has completed painting yellow guide lines on the Larksville Mountain Road from Chase Corners to Lake Silkworth Road. The Chase-Huntsville Road remains to be completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Wagner had as Thanksgiving guests, their daughter and husband, Rev. and Mrs. Bill Sparkman and Walter Rancke of Jersey City, N. J., where Rev. Sparkman is pastor of the Abbott Methodist Church, and Mr. and Mrs. Alden Wagner, Jr., and sons, Paul and Mark, of Holtwood.

Executive Council Meets
Executive Council of United Church Women met at Hotel Sterling Thursday to pay honor to Mrs. Harry F. Henry, chairman of the

at this Christmas party.
B. A. and Two-Fold Classes of Huntsville Methodist Church will have their Christmas party Friday, December 16, at Franklin's Restaurant, Center Moreland.

Hear the dramatic story of John H. Noble, "I Was a Slave in Russia," at Forty Fort High School, December 8, at 8. Mr. Noble was born in Detroit, Mich., trapped in Germany during World War II; arrested by the Soviets; deported to the dreaded Soviet Arctic Slave camps; is one of the few Americans to see the true and undisguised face of Communism in Russia, having survived nine and one-half years of brutal, satanic present-day Soviet slavery. Mr. Noble has realized that only due to the grace of God was it possible to return to freedom and loved ones. Returning to a somewhat confused, a still little concerned America, he brings back a message that should shake the "Free World" out of its complacency.

Private Ernest Bevan, foster son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Hughes, has completed training in the Marine Corps at Parris Island, N. C., and has been transferred to Camp LeJuehne, N. C., his new address is: "G" Co., Camp Gieger, 1st Bn., 1st I.T.R., Camp LeJuehne N. C.
