Shirley Mae Benscoter Marries Clifford A. Hontz On Saturday

Primitive Methodist Church, Franklin St., Plymouth was the setting Saturday, November 25 for the wedding of Shirley Mae Benscoter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Benscoter, Orchard St., Plymouth to Clifford Arden Hontz, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Cletus A. Holcomb, Sr. Main Road, Sweet Valley.

The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Richard Purnell. The bride wore floor length gown, of lace over taffeta, designed with full skirt, square neckline embroidered with sequins and pearls, fitted bodice and long tight sleeves tapered at the wrist. It featured a sweeping train. Her veil of French illusion fell from a crown of sequins and pearls and she carried white Bible, marked with white orchids with ivy streamers.

Maid of honor was Beverly Ann Benscoter, sister of the bride and bridesmaids, Marjorie Benscoter, another sister, and Linda Thompson, Tannerville. They were identical violet taffeta ballerina length gowns, with matching headresses and carried white Bibles topped Charles Younklin, Mt. Pocono, acted as best man and Henry Martin, Wyoming and Matthew Welsh, Mt. Pocono, ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Benscoter selected pink lace over gray taffeta with matching pink accessories; the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Cletus A. Holcomb, Sr. chose a Matte jersey print with blue accessories.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, after which the couple left for a wedding trip to Washington, D.C.

Mrs. Hontz is a graduate of the Plymouth High School. Mr. Hontz, a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School, served for the past four years in the armed forces. Both are employed at Pocano Manor Inn, Mt. Pocono.

Married In October

MRS. JACK SHEPHERD

Marcella Shively, daughter of Mrs. Florence Shively, Dallas R.D. 3 became the bride of Jack D. Shepherd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Shepherd, Petebone Street, Forty Fort, at a recent fall wedding. Rev. William Reid performed the ceremony before an altar banked with white chrysanthemums and ferns. Edna Barnhart was soloist and Mrs. Madeline Raibau, organist.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, Adolph M. Hetzer, the bride wore floor-length gown of Chantilly lace, designed with fitted bodice, long sleeves tapered at wrist and Sabrina neckline. Tiers of scalloped lace formed a bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil of hand-rolled imported illusion was gathered on a crown of lace and tulle high-lighted with sequins and pearls and she carried an Irish point lace handkerchief attached to white orchid on her Bible. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

Marion Culver, twin sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore ballerina length gown of satin and velvet in royal blue, designed with fitted empire bodice of velvet, a scoop neckline and brief sleeves. Unpressed pleats formed the semi-bell effect skirt. She wore a matching headpiece of horsehair and pearls with a short circular veil.

Bridesmaids were Ellen Shively, sister of the bride, and Norma Smith, Trucksville.

The mother of the bride chose light blue sheath dress of nylon lace over taffeta.

The bridegroom's mother selected street-length dress of lilac crepe.

Grandmother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Daisy Timms, selected a navy blue dress with matching accessories and corsage of white roses.

A dinner and a reception was held at the Swoyerville House No. 2, after which the couple left for a tour of the New England States.

Mrs. Shepherd, a graduate of Dallas-Franklin High School is employed by Linear, Inc., Dallas.

Misericordia Sophomore Wins Homemakers Award

Mary J. Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Bowman, 217 N. Oxford Ave., McSherrystown, is the recipient of a $200 Lydia Tarrant-Extension Homemakers scholarship.

A sophomore, majoring in home economics education at Misericordia College, Miss Bowman is a member of the Home Economics club, Glee club, Residents club, and is on the staff of the college newspaper. During the college year she works part time as a salesperson. Summer employment has included camp counseling and orchard work on the farm.

A graduate of Delone Catholic High School, she has been in 4-H Club work for nine years and is a member of Senior Extension.

The Extension Homemakers fund was established in 1953. Women attending the 1961 Homemakers Week renamed it the Lydia Tarrant-Extension Homemakers scholarship fund as a tribute to Miss Tarrant who retired June 30 as State home economics extension leader. Since 1953, but not including those to be given for the current academic year, 115 scholarships totaling $11,500 have been awarded. Voluntary contributions of women throughout the State provide income for the scholarship fund.

Harveys Lake American Legion, Post 967, will meet Tuesday at Kern's Restaurant, 8 p.m. and complete plans for the Christmas party to be held December 2, Saturday. Commander Calvin Strohl urges all members to be present. Dues are now payable.
