

Bridge game: One place where a wife is always eager to do her husband's bidding. Doctor (to patient): "Let me know if this prescription works. I'm having the same trouble myself."

MEEKER

Lehman Grange met with Master Russell Ide December 5. The pros and cons of bomb shelters were discussed as were the proposed resolutions of the State Grange. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bronson, Dorman Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winter and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ide.

Mrs. Bess Ruch, East Dallas; Mrs. Adrian Taylor, Harveys Lake; Mrs. Robert Taylor and son, Ralph, Grand Prairie, Texas, and Mrs. Fred Winter spent Tuesday shopping in Wilkes-Barre after which they traveled to Hazleton to visit Mrs. Hannah Hacker who was a patient at Hazleton State Hospital, and Mr. and Mrs. William Fultz.

James Pearce, son of Mrs. Gladys Pierce, submitted to an appendectomy Thursday at Nanticoke Hospital.

Stanley Simon, father of Mrs. Donald Josuweit, is getting along quite well at General Hospital after submitting to surgery. Donald Josuweit got his buck the first day on Red Rock.

GRAND OLD MAN

Friends and neighbors dropped in to wish Frank Ruggles well on the occasion of his 92nd birthday.

Adrian Taylor, Harveys Lake; Paul Taylor, Idetown, and Charles Taylor, Edwardsville, each got a buck.

Robert McCarty and Wayne Anderson, Kulpville, spent the week hunting at Forkston.

Pomona Grange was held Saturday at Jackson. Address of welcome was by Master Randolph Wright with response by Boyd Bonham. Devotions were by Mrs. William Trethaway. Entertainment was as follows: readings by Mrs. Clyde Sampson, Charles Lewis and Ann Manzoni, "The Color of Christmas," depicted by three candles, green, white and red, was given by Mrs. Elizabeth Ide. Clyde Sampson, Jr., played a trumpet solo and Don Miller sang "Away in a Manger." A candle lighting service was in charge of Freida Snyder. Mrs. Frank Mathers, Sr., Trucksville, gave a reading, "Gold, Frankincense, and Myrrh," after which a Christmas party was held. About forty persons attended.

Fernbrook

Your correspondent has returned home after spending three weeks in Nesbitt Hospital as a medical patient.

Verna J. Lamoreaux, Fern Street, fell on Thursday as she walked on Demunds Road and broke her right arm.

Radar Man 1st Class John Sidorek, his wife, Joyce and son John of Oakland, California left on Monday for this area. He is stationed with the Coast Guard in Alonidia, California. The Sidoreks will spend the Christmas Holidays visiting relatives and friends with their thirty day leave.

The trouble with people who boast about having an open mind is that they usually have a mouth to match.

"Do you have trouble making decisions?" asked the psychiatrist. "Yes and no," came the reply from the couch.
