MARY LEWIS CHRISTMAS PARTY

Mary Lewis Bible Class had its Christmas party Wednesday at Mt. Zion church. Mrs. Emma Miles and Mrs. Jean Hronich served.

The turkey, so tender you could cut it with a fork, was roasted by Sally VanTuyle. Other dishes tasty and good were prepared by members of the class.

After dinner an exchange of gifts furnished pleasure to everybody. Entertainment was provided by readings, one by Mrs. William Reid, and the other by Mrs. Lucy Howell.

Officers were elected as follows: President Mrs. Paul Smith, vice-president Mrs. Ezra Rozelle, secretary Mrs. Lucy Howell, treasurer Mrs. Russell Lewis. Members present were, Emma Masters, Laura Rozelle, Ruth Perry, Rose Miller, Minnie VanTuyle, Mrs. Thos. Howard, Mrs. Ball, Edith Perry, Jennie Smith, Ida Mullison, Myrtle Smith, Mrs. Margaret Reid, Mary T. Lewis, Lucy Howell, Ruth Gilbert, Mrs. Menhennet, Mrs. Guilford, Muriel Rozelle, Sally VanTuyle, Frieda Krum, Margery DeWitt, Blanche Lewis.

Mt. Zion W.S.C.S. last week voted to send a contribution to CARE as it has done every year. A work and study meeting was set for the first Wednesday of each month to make bandages for the Cancer Society and to study.

Minnie VanTuyle was home for a few days last week and then returned to Abington.

OLD BALDY IN ALL SEASONS

Catherine Gilbert entertained the PTA last week at Exeter Township Elementary school with colored slide pictures. Besides some Christmas scenes her pictures included a year's cycle of seasons and moods taken of Bald Mountain over beyond Newton and Milwaukee. Some were taken near the mountain itself but most were from Mt. Zion area. If you have watched a mountain hide its lovely head in gathering mists, or display its purple robes in the glory of an afternoon sun, or look benignly over the top of a cloud—well, you can imagine what old Baldy looks like around the calendar.

A LIVE NEWS ITEM

Like old times I dropped in at Emma and Bill Perego's at Orange. "Any news?" says I. "Yeah," says Bill, "I'm still alive!" Of course that is good news. We had a grand visit. I did not remind them of what fun it was years ago to eat black chocolate cake in a bowl of milk at their house. Emma had heard that was the way I liked black chocolate cake and she provided it! Pleasant memories. They told me that Beverly and Marie Perego (they have an apartment upstairs) recently visited Marie's uncle, John Hay in Philadelphia. Beverly and Marie's daughter, Donna and husband, Richard Sands came with baby Richard to visit while papa Richard went hunting. He bagged an 8-point buck. They live half way up the Mile Hill out of Tunkhannock.

Marie Perego is having good success conducting the Orange choir. Now they are rehearsing Christmas music.

ALL TOGETHER FOR CHRISTMAS

We four Gilberts are together again for Christmas, a cherished occasion. The Christmas tree stands in front of the big study window on the wooden platform I built for it in two sections last year. Trimmings have been accumulating since the first year on Dorothy's first tree. The tall balsam fir in the front yard is trimmed again this year by Catherine's imaginative hand with tin can covers glowing with criss-crossed fluorescent tape. You light them up at night with your car lights.

WHEN CHRIST WAS BORN

Last Wednesday afternoon Rev. Ralph Weatherly spent an hour or so with me to delve deep into the problems of the universe. In response to a thought that had bothered me (about the slaughter of innocent babes by King Herod when he heard about Jesus) friend Weatherly mentioned with gratitude that the Christian Church had included among its holy occasions a prayer and scripture reading for December 28 signaling the Holy Innocents. We ought to remember them too. Scripture says that God makes even the wrath of men to praise Him. We may be sure that God has cherished the souls of the Holy Innocents that tragically died when and because Christ was born.

"Daddy, what is heredity?"
"Heredity, my boy, is what a man believes in until his son begins to act like a fool."

"All men may be born equal, but it's what they are equal to later on that counts."

While the Amish people in Pennsylvania's Lancaster County remain aloof from most modern conveniences, they do use the telephone. With characteristic modesty, of course.

One of America's 12 million Independent telephones

New look in drive-in phones: by Commonwealth Telephone Co. of Dallas, Pa. Numbered among the nation's "best run, best equipped" companies, Commonwealth operates more than 78,000 telephones in 16 Pennsylvania counties. It is one of 3,200 Independents from Florida to Alaska who help you reach all America. More facts?
