

343 Chest X-Rays In Dallas Schools

Jennie Hill, Dallas School nurse, reports that 343 chest X-Rays were taken by the Mobile Unit of Wyoming Valley Tuberculosis and Health Society November 20.

Home From Hospital

Mrs. Charles Knight, Huntsville, is convalescing at her home after being a patient at General Hospital for several weeks. She wishes to express her deep appreciation to the many friends who helped bring cheer through words, flowers and gifts.

SWEET VALLEY

Biggest Deer

Sweet Valley Fish and Game Protective Association offered a five dollar award to any member bagging a deer between December 4 and December 12 having the widest antler spread.

The winner was William Stock, Oakdale Road, whose one hundred-fifty pound buck was shot on Tuesday, December 5, near Pritchards Corner. The antler spread was sixteen inches.

Joseph Wengyn, Plymouth, butchered and prepared it for freezing. The association has elected the following officers:—Howard Post, President; Peter Burniski, Vice President; William L. Lamoreaux, Treasurer; Charles Regulski, Recording Secretary; Harold Briggs, Corresponding Secretary.

B. K., small son of Rev. and Mrs. B. Kirby Jones has been ill with an infected throat.

Mrs. Nettie Post spent the weekend with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long. On Thursday Mrs. Post visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bill George.

Ferris Roberts, Jr. bagged an eight-point buck in the Moorestown area.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Post spent Sunday in Berwick, where they visited the latter's brother, Guy Lynn, who is hospitalized. Mr. Lynn, employed at American Car Foundry, sustained serious injuries to his left arm while at work.

Mrs. James Banks and daughter, Mrs. James R. Bottoms, Jr. Plains, spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Ray.

Important Visitors

In Sweet Valley, the most important visit of the week was Santa arriving at Ord Trumbower's market Friday evening. To each child who climbed upon his knee, pouring out a long list of "I want—" he presented a story book. Christmas Season is coming into full swing in our village with several parties being held this week. Douglas Trumbower, student at Penn State University, is home for Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ord Trumbower.

The condition of Mrs. Anna Hoover at General Hospital remains fair. Mrs. Hoover fractured her hip three weeks ago. She is the mother of Mrs. Ralph Naugle and aunt of Mrs. Luther Hunter. She would enjoy receiving cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Arden Hunter, Francis and Linda, Baltimore, spent Monday and Tuesday with Arden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hunter. Arden's wife Raiko, formerly from Japan, expects to receive her citizenship papers within the next two months.

Maple Grove Methodist Church had its Christmas program Sunday evening. Santa arrived and distributed gifts and candy. Rev. James M. Garahan is Pastor.

Albert Smith spent the weekend at home with Mrs. Smith, Bob and Darwin. He is self-employed, hauling cars for Great Lakes Forwarding Co.

Home For Holidays

Dean and Janice Bronson have arrived to spend the Holiday Season with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Bronson. Janice, an elementary teacher in Los Angeles, California, Public Schools, left that city by Jet last Sunday, arriving in Philadelphia Monday where her parents and brother were on hand to greet her. She will return December 29. Dean, enrolled at Shepherd College, Shenherdstown, Va. arrived home Friday accompanied by Bill Williams, Idetown, also a student at Shepherd.

Auxiliary Party

Auxiliary of Sweet Valley Volunteer Fire Co. held its Christmas party Saturday evening. Mrs. Ord Trumbower entertained with a reading and two poems, games were played, lunch was served and Santa arrived with gifts for all. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. David Evans, Sr.; Mr. and Mrs. David Evans, Jr.; Amy Jo, David III, and Daryl; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Major; Mrs. Michael Maransky; Mrs. Richard Davenport, Sr.; Mrs. Delbert Meade, and Delores Trumbower.

New officers are, Mrs. Cletus Holcomb, Jr., President; Mrs. Michael Maransky, Vice President; Mrs. Harold Briggs, Secretary; Mrs. Ord Trumbower, Treasurer; Mrs. Richard Davenport, Sr. and Mrs. Charles Masters. Women of the area are invited to attend the meetings which are held the first Thursday of each month.

The Firemen have elected these officers for the coming year. Loren Cragle, Jr., President; William George, Vice President; George Bronson, Recording Secretary; Carl D. Rood, Treasurer; Financial Secretary, Michael Niemchik; Sherman Kunkle, Fire Chief; Trustees are Ord Trumbower; Clarence Doherty; and Joseph G. Kipp. Meetings are held the second Thursday and all men are urged to attend.

Mrs. Adrian DeMarco spent Friday shopping in Easton and also visited with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Baur, Nazareth.

The recently re-organized Cub Pack 444 will have its first meeting January 3. Hills of Hope will be used as a dividing line, with those living on the Sweet Valley side meeting at Church of Christ; hill and those living on the opposite side meeting at Maple Grove Methodist Church. For further information call Burl Updyke, Cub Master, and watch this column for Pack News.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard C. Post, Split Rail Lane, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nuss, Trucksville, have returned after spending a weekend in New York.
