

AROUND TOWN

A very modern Santa Claus was expected to fly in by Helicopter from the North Pole on Sunday afternoon, soar over the house-tops of New Goss Manor and land in the rear of Hume Daron's on Grandview Avenue.

But the weather and ice were too much for a Helicopter landing, and Santa motored in by car, escorted by Bob Block and Tony Zachary. They landed instead, in the circle of Highland Drive.

Much to the delight of the children Santa was replendant in his famous costume of red and white, complete with a pack on his back. From his pack, boxes of candy were given to the children and the excitement and magic of Christmas was evident on the face of each child.

In spite of the rain, a fairly good crowd turned out to witness the arrival and departure of Goss Manor's own special Santa Claus.

Santa, none other than Vincent Makar of Hillcrest Avenue, was to be flown from his North Pole address at the Forty Fort Airport, by George Horwatt, until the weather man interfered.

Sponsor of the venture was New Goss Manor Home Association. The committee in charge, Robert Block, Skyview Ave.; and Anthony Zachary, Woodcliff Ave. James Regan, Hillcrest Ave. is president of the Association.

Ho! Ho! Ho! Santa Claus himself has nothing on a group of "Papas" making like real Santa's last Saturday, when they armed themselves with the tools for cutting down their own Christmas trees, and; did just that!

It seems the Back Mountain has its own North Pole where any Dad with muscles enough, can chop down his own Christmas tree for a nominal fee, plus a few strained muscles.

I don't believe their route was over snow studded house tops in a sleigh, but with their trees on their backs, we heard them explain as they drove out of sight—"Merry Christmas to all, and to all a Good Night."

Brownies To Carol In Goss Manor. About twenty-six girls of Brownie Troop No. 220 of Dallas Methodist Church, accompanied by their leaders, will tour the Goss Manor area tonight (Thursday) at 7 p.m. to lift their voices singing Christmas Carols.

Afterwards the youngsters will hold a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Oliver Troup of Highland Drive. Gifts will be exchanged and refreshments served, Mrs. John Blaze and Mrs. Frank Kuehn assisting.

Winter Formal Virginia Drake, Woodlawn Drive, recently attended the "Winter Formal" at Syracuse University. She was the week-end guest of James Cannon. The dance was held at the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity House and is considered the most formal dance of the year.

Virginia wore a red lace, waltz length evening gown and her escort was in formal attire. Special favours for each young lady at the dance was a single orchid nestled in a glass goblet.

On Sunday morning everyone attended a special Christmas Chapel service. Virginia had a wonderful time, and says she will never forget it.

Home From College Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Moen, Huntsville Road, entertained their bridge club Saturday evening at their home. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bachman and Dr. and Mrs. Marshall Rumbaugh, Dallas; and Dr. and Mrs. William Myers, Forty Fort. Home For The Holidays: Diane McClary, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Ray McClary, Claude Street, will be home for Christmas. The McClary's are newcomers to Dallas and find it a very friendly community. Diane is hostess for Alleghany Airlines and makes many regular flights to Avoca Airport.

Home From College Home from college to spend Christmas with their families are: Donnie Hopkins-Bloomsburg State College; Wesley Evans-Lycoming; Nancy Wolfe, Mansfield State College; Sue Kelley, Temple University; Bob Taylor, Bluefield College, Virginia; Bill Whittaker, Pennsylvania Military College; Sherry Gauntlett, General Hospital; Karen Culver, General Hospital; Patt Whittaker, Bloomsburg State College and Bob Moyer, Penn State.

Little Gregg Harrison, E. Center Hill Road, has been ill for several days. We hope he's up and well for Santa Claus time.

Mrs. Hume Daron, Grandview Avenue, is home for Christmas after a seige of illness at Nesbitt Hospital.

Members of the Bill Wright family, including Mr. Wright's mother, have all been down with the flu except Mrs. Wright. She says it will probably be just her luck to be down for the Holidays. We hope not.
