

MEEKER

W.S.C.S. Christmas party was held at the home of Edna W. Rebenack, Tuesday evening.

Devotions were led by Esther Alles with the scripture lesson from Luke 2, 1-20 followed by a story "Lighting the Christmas Candles" and hymns, "Silent Night" and "O Little Town of Bethlehem." Mae King presented a program of "Christmas Cards from Other Lands." Those attending were: Marie Wolfe, Edna Karschner, Addie Kytte, Glendoris Shilanski, Ruth Rogers, Edna King, Carrie Wolfe, Esther Alles, Linda Rogowski, Maeking, Louise King, Helen Rood, Dorothy Steele, Dolores Garrahan, and Hazel Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor and son Ralph left Tuesday to return to Grand Prairie, Texas, stopping along the way to visit Mrs. Taylor's sister, Mrs. Mildred Barner and daughter Susan at Lamar after spending the week visiting friends and relatives in this area.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rogowski, Pikes Creek, celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary on Sunday.

Thoughts of Christmas have been in the minds of all since about the first of December, but as it grows closer with the hustle and bustle of shopping and preparation, let us not lose sight of the real meaning this day should have for us.

Home For Holidays

Sandra Laidler, a freshman in the physical education course at Bouve-Boston School, affiliated with Tufts University, Medford, Mass., is at home for the Christmas vacation. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Laidler of Overbrook Avenue.
