Because of the size of the Dallas Post this week and since we had a short week do to the holidays, I found it difficult to get copy in on time. Bowling News is taking a leave of absence. See your 600 series or 290 game in the Dallas Post next week. Also, look for important results of first half competition.

STUDENT PROGRAM

Members of the girl's chorus presented a portion of their concert to the student body and faculty on Wednesday. Because of the time element, many songs had to be omitted. However, a few of the special numbers were worked in which included the brass trio composed of Paul Jenkins, John Wardell and Wes Cave, Elfriede Hefft and Betty Jean Davis sang the solo parts in the program.

CHORUS CONCERT

We would like to thank everyone who attended the Christmas program on Thursday night to make it a success. The first half of the program featured our orchestra playing a medley of Christmas numbers. It was followed, in the second half, by the girls' chorus who presented a lovely arrangement of carols, some new, others traditional favorites. All in all, we sincerely hope we successfully conveyed the Christmas spirit to our very appreciative audience.

BASKETBALL

Don't forget! Tomorrow, 8:00 p.m., boys' basketball with Coughlin at home. Come to the game and help us keep our winning streak.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Girls' basketball practice will be

NEW YEARS

Now that Christmas has passed and we are on the brink of a brand new year, let us look back on what we have to be thankful for. Let us not forget the many blessings we have received or the kind-hearted ways people have shown toward us. When everything seemed to look black and hopeless, let us recall the guiding hand which showed us the light. Let's consider all of these things and humbly give our thanks to the Lord. We are on the threshold of a new and exciting year. Let us wipe the slate clean and begin anew. Enter: 1962!

Magazines—Due to the many requests by you, the public, we find it necessary to publish the following information: The Curtis Circulation Company is now in the process of handling our school's orders and first copies for each magazine subscription should arrive within four to six weeks. We sincerely hope you will be satisfied and that we can be of service to you next year.

ROAD NEEDS ATTENTION

Residents of Chase Road from Chase Corners to Lake Silk worth Road, are complaining about the "Public Be Damned" attitude the State Highway Department has taken toward ashing. The department evidently feels that one ashing is sufficient. There should be snow fences from the Harold Bertram turkey farm up to Chase Manor, as the snow drifts in this section. More ashes should be spread on this road and it should be kept ashed as long as slippery conditions exist.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brink and sons, Larry and Tom, and Scott Lee, Eagles Mere, were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Hughes Thursday. The Brinks and Scott Lee enjoyed skiing at Big Boulder at Split Rock Lodge which enjoyed one of its largest crowds this past week. On Wednesday there were present over 3,000 skiers from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Florida and other states. Tom Brink was a victim of polio but with expert care from both the hospital and his mother has now turned into an expert skier. The day of miracles is ever present.

C. W. Bertels has returned from the hospital and is feeling much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brachman have returned after spending the holidays with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Zharick and daughters, Susan and Zathy, at Shiremanstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Brown attended the Christmas party of Wyoming Valley Chapter of Credit Unions at Konefal's, Edwardsville. Grant Cooper, son of Chief and Mrs. Robert Cooper, suffered a heart attack at home. After treatment at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital he was allowed to return home.

Wayne Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes, will leave Saturday for Bryan College, Dayton, Tenn., where he is a Sophomore.
