Married November 25

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE W. SHIMMEL

At a November wedding performed in Huntsville Methodist Church on the 25, at 3 p. m. Nancy May Elston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Elston, Overbrook Avenue, became the bride of George William Schimmel, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Schimmel, 700 East Main Street, Nanticoke and Lake Nanticoke.

The double ring ceremony was performed before the altar adorned with chrysanthemums, ferns and palms by the Rev. C. Earle Cowden, pastor and the Rev. Dr. Harry F. Henry. Carl Coates was organist and Frank Prutzman, soloist.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore gown of peau satin fashioned with princess bodice, circlet neckline, embellished in sequins and pearls featuring long tapered sleeves. The bouffant skirt was complemented with motifs of seed pearls and sequins and a bustle back bow extended in an opulent train.

Her veil of finest imported silk illusion was attached to a tiara of seed pearls and sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of white pompons centered with an orchid.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Harold Elston, sister-in-law of the bride, wore antique gold peau satin gown styled with basque bodice, bateau neckline, and brief sleeves. The ballerina length skirt was fashioned with bustle back rose detail. Her head piece was a peau satin fitted cloche trimmed in tailored bows and circular veil and her bouquet was bronze pompons.

Shirley Jean Wyrsch, Binghamton, cousin of the bride and Lynn Shouldice, Huntsville, bridesmaids, wore gowns of turquoise peau satin styled like the maid of honor's and matching hats. Their bouquets were of bronze pompons. Paul Elston, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Best man was James West of Champaign, Illinois. Harold Elston, brother of the bride and James Seltito of Parkersburg, ushered the guests.

Mother of the bride wore dress of dusty rose chantilly lace, matching accessories and an orchid corsage. Mother of the bridegroom chose mink silk sheath dress, blue accessories and corsage of yellow roses.

Following the reception in the Church Parlor, the couple left for Washington, D.C. and Virginia. For traveling the bride chose beige suit with mouton collar, gold accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Schimmel is a graduate of Dallas-Franklin High School, Wyoming Seminary School of Business and attended Wilkes College.

She is employed as Histologist in the Laboratory in Nesbitt Memorial Hospital.

Mr. Schimmel, a graduate of Meyers High School, received his BS Degree in Civil Engineering from Pennsylvania State University. A member of the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association, he is associated with his father in General Construction Business.

The bride was honored at a shower given by Mrs. Harold Elston, dinners given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wyrsch, Shirley Wyrsch of Binghamton; Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Harvey at Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Thmas Cease Allan Cease at Dallas. Brides parents entertained following the wedding rehearsal.

The couple will reside on Loomis Street, Nanticoke.
