Large Increase In Membership Of Junior High School PTA Noted

Tremendous increase in P. T. A. membership at Dallas Junior High School was reported by Mrs. Welton Farrar, at the recent P.T.A. Meeting. Thanks and praise go to Mrs. Farrar and Home Room Mothers, who aided her in the drive for complete membership.

Two Home-rooms reached 100%: Mrs. Jewel Ruddy, whose Home-room mother is Mrs. Wilbur Davis, and the joint Home-room of Mr. Edmund Brominski and Mr. Leonard Kozick, whose Home-room mother is Mrs. Donald Buford. The P.T.A., setting its goal at 400 membership, has reached 388 members, just two short of the goal, an overwhelming increase from last year.

Panel discussion was held with various questions being answered concerning curriculum, civil defense and the lunch program at Dallas Junior High School. Parents showed great interest.

A short business meeting preceded the panel discussion in which Miss Esther Saxe led devotions. The P. T. A. named a Nominating Committee consisting of Robert Bachman, chairman; Alfred M. Camp and Sherman Harter.
